

91ST HOUSE REPRESENTATIVE CANDIDATES

Twitter Data Analysis- What their twitter activity says about them

WHAT IS AN ILLINOIS HOUSE REPRESENTATIVE

An Illinois State Representative is a politician who serves in a state level legislative branch. In Illinois there are 118 districts in which all have a representative. They introduce and vote on legislations that is in the interest of their constituents. They also have the ability to vote on changes to the constitution, propose amendments and create budgets

SHARON CHUNG- DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE

Joined Twitter on March 26, 2018 and has tweet a total of 121 times since September 22, 2022. She has 227 followers and is following 26 accounts.

Theme 1: is on Chung's stance against racism

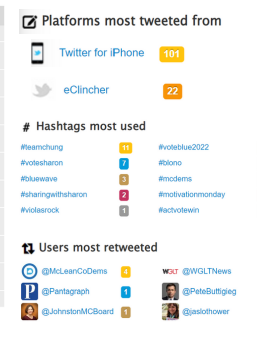

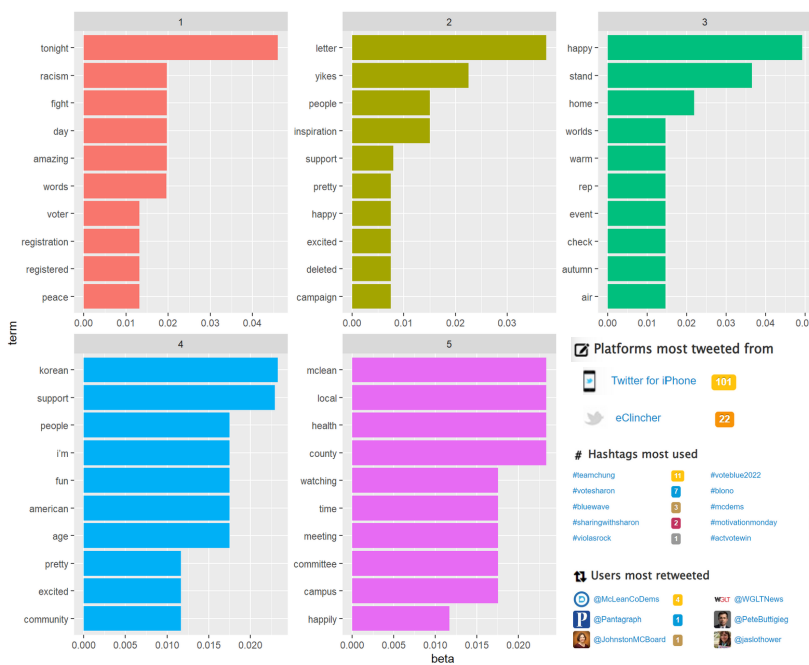

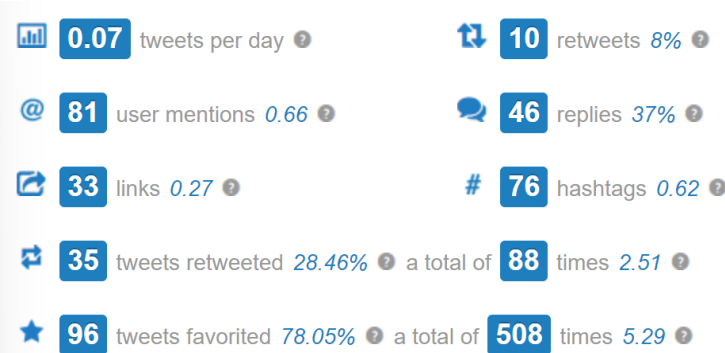

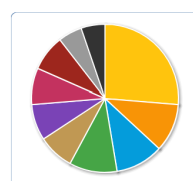

Theme 2: is about Chung sharing letters written to her through the Pentagraph

Theme 3: is a combination of her love for autumn and tweet about the McLean County nursing home

Theme 4: showcases Chung's ethnic background and that representation matters

theme 5: quoted retweets about health committee meeting

@ Users most mentioned

SCOTT PRESTON- REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE

First tweet is from January 12, 2022 and has tweet a total of 63 times since September 22, 2022. He has 61 followers and is following 27 accounts.

Theme 1: focuses on the tweets that are about his campaign promises

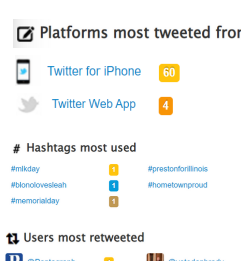

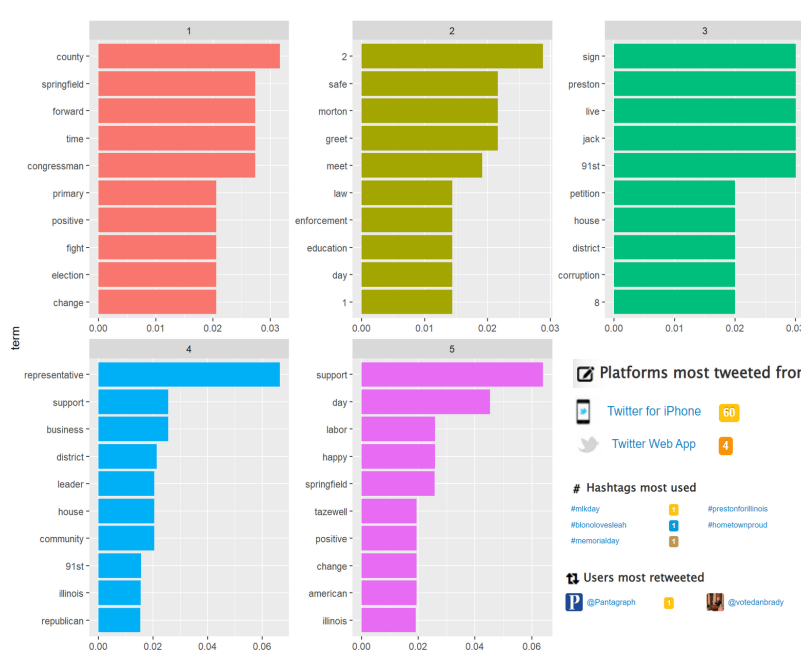

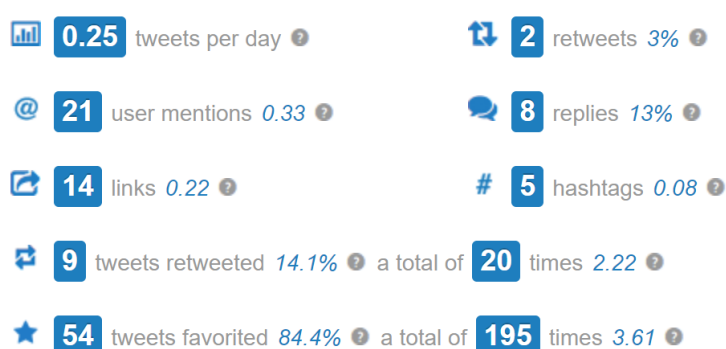

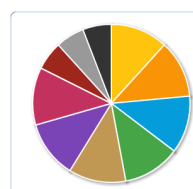

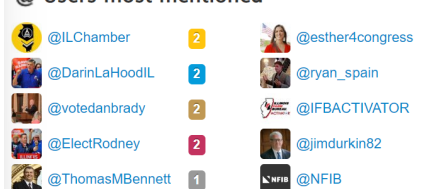

Theme 2: City Morton, law enforcement is used in relation to the SAFE-T Act

Theme 3: is about Preston's son Jack, and other tweets about signing his petition

Theme 4: republican candidate for the 91st Illinois house, advocate to better the business community, is also a business owner

theme 5: Tazewell Circuit Clerk, tweets expressing gratitude for supporting his campaign

@ Users most mentioned

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION, THE ILLINOIS STATE UNIVERSITY CENTER FOR CIVIC ENGAGEMENT HAS CREATED A CANDIDATE GUIDE THAT HOLDS INFORMATION REGARDING THE OFFICIAL WEBSITES OF THE GENERAL 2022 ELECTION CANDIDATES.