

On 3rd July 2014, the English Literature graduates of Class 2014 came together for a night of reminiscence and celebration at Shaw Foundation Alumni House. The event and venue were kindly sponsored by the English Language and Literature Department, Office of Alumni Relations, and Shaw Foundation Alumni House. Feasting to our heart's delight, we took the opportunity to catch up and to wish one another the very best for our endeavours ahead.

