

PSYCHOLOGY RESEARCH INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Research Mentors and Team Members

Professor Catherine So-kum Tang, Professor, Department of Psychology, NUS

Dr Yvaine Yee Woen Koh, Post-doctoral Fellow, Asia Research Institute (ARI) and the Centre for Family Population and Research (CFPR), NUS

Ms Kho Jie Min, Ph.D candidate, Department of Psychology, NUS

Miss Gwyneth-Ann Kim Choo Khoo, Research Assistant, Department of Psychology, NUS

Miss Jamaica Tan Pei Ying, Research Assistant, Department of Psychology, NUS

Primary Research Sites

Department of Psychology, Trauma and Resilience Lab, National University of Singapore

The Centre for Family Population and Research (CFPR), National University of Singapore

Asia Research Institute (ARI), National University of Singapore

Primary Research Topics

Adjustment to Challenges in life transition, such as marriage, parenthood, retirement etc.

Behaviour addictions such as addiction to internet, gaming, social media, shopping, gambling, unhealthy eating, & work etc.

Research Internship Activities

Observation of mentors and team members in action

Research participation and training with research mentors and team members

Participation and attendance to research meetings as well as research seminars/conferences

First-hand experience on data collection using surveys, field work, interviews, focus groups

Formulation of thesis/independent study projects with research mentors and team members

Research Internship Detail

At least 8-10 hours per week for 5 months with a minimum of 200 hours to complete the internship

A stipend of $12 per hour for data collection and field work if applicable

Internship period: May 1 to September 30, 2017

A total of 5 interns in the intake

Intern Selection

NUS Psychology Major: Current undergraduate Year 2-3 students

Academic excellence with a minimum of 4.0 in overall cumulative CAP scores

Good English and/or Chinese writing and speaking skills, Good command of Malay/Tamil is a bonus

Good quantitative research background and skills

Responsible and able to work independently

Able to work with a team of professionals from different disciplines

Satisfactory performance in selection interview

Deliverable

To assist in research projects and publish results at the end of the internship

An internship attendance letter will be issued after submission of the activity log book and internship report

Interns who have successfully completed the internship will receive letters of completion/recommendations from the mentors

Application

Full CV with course grades and CAP scores, including a 300-word statement of interest

Application and inquiries sent to: arikyw@nus.edu.sg, ATTN: PSYCHOLOGY INTERNSHIP

Deadlines

Deadlines: 31 March 2017