What is this Joint Minor Programme about?

- Part of a semester structured Student Exchange Programme to University of Toronto (UoT)
- This joint minor consists of 24MC (6 modules)
- Both grades and credits will be transferred for all courses read at UoT (factored into CAP)
- Minor in “Urban and Regional Change in North America” (Currently a change of name to Minor in North American Geographies is being considered)

What are the Terms and Conditions?

- Open to all FASS majors, including Geography majors
- Must have completed the following 2 NUS modules before leaving for UoT:
  - GE2202 Economy and Space
  - GE2204 Cities in Transition
- Minimum CAP of 3.5 and above to apply; subjected to high competition
- Only 10 places are available; cannot be used as non-joint minor SEP to UoT; student can however do one non-Geography course while at UoT
- Must undertake to complete the minor
- Adhere to general SEP rules and regulations

How do I fulfil the joint minor requirements?

- Complete the joint minor at UoT by reading 4 more courses
- Strictly use the MCs allotted to Unrestricted Electives (outside the major) requirement to satisfy the minor requirements
- For Geography major, 8 MC of the minor can be double counted towards your major. However, the credits for these modules are only counted once. You will still need to make-up the MCs required by reading UEs outside major.

Distribution Requirement Status: This is a Social Science course
Breadth Requirement: Society and its Institutions (3)

GGR357H1  Housing and Community Development [24L]  >>> NEW <<<
Focuses on the importance of adequate housing and the challenge of achieving this for all residents. It will root theoretical explanations in realities using Canada and Toronto as examples. Topics covered include public policies relating to social housing, rental housing, homeownership, neighborhoods, and homelessness.
Prerequisite: Completion of a minimum of 8 FCEs
Recommended Preparation: GGR124H1
Distribution Requirement Status: This is a Social Science course
Breadth Requirement: Society and its Institutions (3)

GGR358H1  Geography, Political Economy and Religion [24L]  >>> NEW <<<
Focuses on the interaction between political economy and religion, with a particular focus on how this plays out in cities. In the theoretical realm, most political economists have written extensively on religion at one point or another. It is important to consider what they have said about religion and how it might have affected their ostensibly secular ideas about politics and economy. In the practical realm, religion, as belief system invented by humans, structures a great deal of political and economic activity at a variety of spatial scales. Religion, for example, influences relationships between countries, urban politics, city form, and social class among many other spheres. This course is an introduction to both the theoretical and practical applications of the intersection of political economy and religion.
Prerequisite: 8.0 FCE's
Distribution Requirement Status: This is a Social Science course
Breadth Requirement: Society and its Institutions (3)

GGR361H1  Understanding the Urban Landscape [24L]
Three related themes are discussed: the underlying social, cultural and economic forces that have given cities their form and image; various aesthetic and political philosophies that have been put into practice in constructing the urban landscape; and recent European and North American attempts to control the landscape of the contemporary metropolis by the application of urban policy and planning.
Recommended Preparation: 8.0 FCE's including GGR124H1 and one of GGR216H1, GGR240H1, or GGR246H1
Distribution Requirement Status: This is a Social Science course
Breadth Requirement: Society and its Institutions (3)
These are currently in NUS list

GGR328H1  Labour Geographies [24L]  (might fit, mainly NA, at least with current instructor)
Explores changes in the nature of work and the structure and geography of labour markets. Topics will include globalization, lean production, flexibility and risk, industrial relations, workfare, the body at work, and gender and work.
Prerequisite: 8.0 FCE's including 1.0 FCE in Geography (SOC SCI/BR=3)
