

SMU MEADOWS
SEASON EVENTS 19/20

CELE — — BRATE TRADITION.

Celebrate with us!

If you are turning the pages of this season brochure then you will soon find out that SMU Meadows School of the Arts offers the most diverse array of entertainment for the most affordable prices.

Meadows is celebrating the 50th anniversary of its naming, and we're inviting you to join us by becoming a season subscriber. Subscribers not only enjoy symphony, theatre, dance, opera and other performances, they are also an integral part of the Meadows family. Our students need great audiences with whom to share their craft.

Subscribers get a 25% discount on every ticket they buy as part of their season package. A subscription consists of a minimum of six performances, but you'll want to attend more. You will also be first to know of special events at Meadows and have the first choice of the very best seats at Meadows at the Meyerson in March, an annual event that showcases our talented artists and scholars.

It is also easy to exchange tickets if your schedule requires flexibility. Simply call our office (214-SMU-ARTS) and we are happy to help.

This is your chance to see our rising stars and to support 50 years of outstanding work at Meadows School of the Arts.

We'd also like to invite you to join us on Friday, November 8, 2019 at 4 p.m. for a public ceremony to kick off renovations of the Owen Arts Center. You can learn more about it at smu.edu/TransformOwenArts.

Come celebrate with us!

Fall Brown Bag Dance Series

October 7-11, 2019
12 p.m. Mon., Wed. & Fri.; 12:30 p.m. Tues. & Thurs.
Bob Hope Lobby / Owen Arts Center
FREE

The Division of Dance presents lunchtime performances of 10-15 original, student-choreographed works in multiple genres including ballet, modern, jazz, tap and hip-hop.

Fall Dance Concert ✨

November 13-17, 2019
8 p.m. Wed.-Sat.; 2 p.m. Sun.
Bob Hope Theatre / Owen Arts Center

The Fall Dance Concert will premiere a new work by NYC jazz/tap artist Caleb Teicher, winner of a Bessie Award and Dance Magazine's "Best Emerging Choreographer" Reader's Choice Award. Teicher is known for his unique style of theatricality, humor, emotional expression and aesthetic exploration. He possesses "rare grace and style that, when coupled with speedy and impressive footwork, makes him one of the tap world's leading young artists." (Jacob's Pillow Festival) Also on the program will be a premiere by acclaimed Dallas-area choreographer and Meadows Artist-in-Residence Carter Alexander. Alexander, who is also co-artistic director of Ballet Dallas, will set his new work to Beethoven's Symphony No. 1 in C Major. His creative blend of classical Balanchine with contemporary movement has won him accolades throughout the U.S. Rounding out the concert is Robert Battle's rousing Battlefield, originally created with the Meadows Dance Ensemble in 2001. Battle, currently artistic director of the renowned Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater, choreographs works that are daring, visceral, and highly explosive, leaving audiences filled with energy and excitement.

Spring Dance Concert ✨

March 11-15, 2020
8 p.m. Wed.-Sat.; 2 p.m. Sun.
Bob Hope Theatre / Owen Arts Center

The Spring Dance Concert will premiere a new work by SMU Jazz Artist-in-Residence Mark Burrell. Spatial architecture, seductive innuendo and character interplay are hallmarks of Burrell's work, in which he blends classical jazz dance stylings with athletic, rhythmic and theatrical dance. San Francisco Bay Area artist Joe Goode will also create a new work on the Meadows Dance Ensemble. A Guggenheim Fellowship recipient, Goode is a choreographer, writer and director widely known as an innovator in the field of dance for his willingness to combine movement with spoken word, song and visual imagery. Nationally acclaimed choreographer Adam Hougland will close out the program with his haunting and disturbing Cripple and the Starfish. Set to a quintet of orchestral pop songs by the group Antony and the Johnsons, this enigmatic and powerfully visceral work is, in the words of Tulsa World dance critic Jim Watts, "One of the most emotionally shattering experiences I've had in a theater."

Senior Dance Concert

April 30-May 3, 2020
8 p.m. Thurs.-Sat.; 2 p.m. Sun.
Bob Hope Theatre / Owen Arts Center
$5 per person for reserved seating

Student Rush: Students may line up for free admittance with a valid student I.D. one hour prior to performance time. Students will be admitted to the theatre 5 minutes before show time and may choose seating based on availability.

The annual Senior Dance Concert features works choreographed and produced by seniors in the Division of Dance. Two different programs will be presented. Program 1 is April 30 & May 2; Program 2 is May 1 & 3.

The Diary of Anne Frank ✨

By Wendy Kesselman, Frances Goodrich & Albert Hackett
Directed by Benard Cummings

October 2-6, 2019

8 p.m. Wed.-Sat.; 2 p.m. Sat. & Sun.

Greer Garson Theatre / Owen Arts Center

In her famous diary, Anne Frank chronicled the two years her family and five other Jews hid in tiny attic rooms in Amsterdam during its Nazi occupation. Published after her death, the diary sold more than 30 million copies in 60 languages. Kesselman's new adaptation brings Anne's story to vibrant life: We see the daily existence of the Frank family and their friends, where meeting basic needs can become a challenge, and even minor incidents could present grave risk. "...undeniably moving..." (NY Times)

we, the invisibles ✨

By Susan Soon He Stanton
Directed by Sara Romersberger

October 23-27, 2019

8 p.m. Wed.-Sat.; 2 p.m. Sat. & Sun.

Margo Jones Theatre / Owen Arts Center

In 2011, before #MeToo, a New York City hotel maid accused the director of the International Monetary Fund of sexual assault. All charges were dismissed. Stanton's provocative play we, the invisibles exposes the realities of service workers like Nafissatou Diallo who have come to New York from all over the globe to earn a living working in luxury hotels and restaurants. "...this documentary project becomes an unexpectedly personal journey. Funny, poignant, and brutally honest..." (Backstage) "...a layered, interesting and ...emotionally engaging look at power dynamics ...human and charming ...a love letter to immigrants and people working in the service industry." (Insider Louisville)

Machinal ✨

By Sophie Treadwell
Directed by Blake Hackler / Studio Project 2019

December 4-8, 2019

8 p.m. Wed.-Sat.; 2 p.m. Sat. & Sun.

Margo Jones Theatre / Owen Arts Center

Originally performed on Broadway in 1928 and loosely based on a true crime story about Ruth Snyder, the first woman to be executed for murder in New York, Treadwell's drama is an astoundingly timeless and fearlessly frank examination of how modern society can provoke a woman's self-destruction. "...a lightning bolt, a roar." (The Stage) New to our audiences this season, Studio Projects focus on the processes that go into creating a production. At these events, audiences are invited to witness how actors, directors and designers build a performance from the ground up.

Men on Boats ✨

By Jaclyn Backhaus
Directed by Aneesha Kudtarkar (B.F.A. '12, M.F.A. Directing '19)

February 26-March 1, 2020

8 p.m. Wed.-Sat.; 2 p.m. Sat. & Sun.

Greer Garson Theatre / Owen Arts Center

Ten explorers. Four boats. One Grand Canyon. Men on Boats is the true(ish) history of the famous 1869 expedition where a one-armed captain (Major John Wesley Powell) and a crew of volunteers set out to map the course of the Colorado River. Backhaus reinvents this slice of American history through a hilariously cockeyed ViewMaster to examine issues of identity, gender, community, and what we mean by "history." "...funny and relevant ...both the journey and the destination are well worth your time." (TheaterJones) A "rollicking history pageant." (NY Times)

New Visions, New Voices

Directed by Gretchen Smith

March 27-29 and April 3-5, 2020

8 p.m. Fri. & Sat.; 2 p.m. Sat. & Sun.

Margo Jones Theatre / Owen Arts Center

FREE

In its 26th year of production, New Visions, New Voices features the original work of student playwrights in full-length plays presented as staged readings. The festival takes place over two weekends, highlighting the work of eight young writers. With directors from the Dallas theatre scene and student actors, these plays showcase the voices, conflicts and concerns of Gen Z playwrights.

The Rep: Three Contemporary American Plays Performed in Rotation ✨

April 23-May 3, 2020

8 p.m. Thurs.-Sat.; 2 p.m. Sat. (4/25 only); 2 p.m. Sun.

Greer Garson Theatre / Owen Arts Center

The Rep includes three plays presented in rotating performance over a two-week period.

Meadows Symphony Orchestra

Danielpour, Prokofiev and Copland ✨

September 27 & 29, 2019

7:30 p.m. Fri.; 2:30 p.m. Sun.

Caruth Auditorium / Owen Arts Center

The MSO, led by music director Paul Phillips, opens its new concert season with Richard Danielpour's Celestial Night, a 20-minute piece inspired by summer evenings of stargazing in New England. It will be followed by Prokofiev's Piano Concerto No. 1, featuring faculty member Catharine Lysinger as piano soloist. Prokofiev performed the lively, concise, melodically rich work at his graduation from the St. Petersburg Conservatory in 1914, winning the school's concerto competition. The concert concludes with Aaron Copland's Suite from Appalachian Spring. Drawn from the ballet depicting a young couple in rural 19th-century Pennsylvania that Copland created for Martha Graham in 1944, the suite has become one of the most famous compositions of this iconic American composer. In 2016, the full orchestra version of the entire ballet was completed in collaboration with the Martha Graham Dance Company and the Aaron Copland Fund for Music, and received its world premiere by the MSO.

Beethoven, Revueltas and Shostakovich ✨

November 1 & 3, 2019

7:30 p.m. Fri.; 2:30 p.m. Sun.

Caruth Auditorium / Owen Arts Center

The concert begins with Beethoven's Triple Concerto, a lesser-known, genial work he composed in 1804 for his then-teenaged pupil and patron, the Archduke Rudolph of Austria. Featured faculty soloists are violinist Aaron Boyd, cellist Andres Díaz and pianist Carol Leone. Following intermission, the orchestra will perform Sensemayá by Mexican composer Silvestre Revueltas. This work is based on the poem of the same title by the Cuban poet Nicolás Guillén and evokes the sounds of Afro-Caribbean chant. Rounding out the concert is Shostakovich's Symphony No. 9, an emotionally complex work reflecting both merriment and sorrow, composed shortly after the end of World War II.

Wagner, Koch and Dvorak ✨

JESPER KOCH MINI-FESTIVAL

December 6 & 8, 2019

7:30 p.m. Fri.; 2:30 p.m. Sun.

Caruth Auditorium / Owen Arts Center

The concert opens with the Prelude to Parsifal, Wagner's final opera, a story of knights of the Holy Grail. Considered a miniature masterpiece in its own right, the beautiful and poignant Prelude sets the mood of contemplation and religious fervor expressed in the opera. It will be followed by the world premiere of Danish composer Jesper Koch's Shelley Fragments, composed for the Meadows Symphony Orchestra and inspired by Percy Shelley's poem Julian and Maddalo: A Conversation. The concert concludes with Dvorak's Symphony No. 7. Composed in 1885 during a difficult time in Dvorak's life, it's often called his "tragic" symphony – dark, passionate and glorious.

Jesper Koch Chamber Music Recital ✨

JESPER KOCH MINI-FESTIVAL

Saturday, December 7, 2019

7:30 p.m.

Caruth Auditorium / Owen Arts Center

As part of its Jesper Koch mini-festival, Meadows presents a concert of his chamber works performed by the composer and Meadows faculty, students and alumni. The concert will showcase the world premiere of Tombstones, Six Epitaphs from Spoon River, with soprano Alissa Roca (M.M. '16, Performer's Diploma '18) and Koch on piano. Two works inspired by Alice in Wonderland will be featured: Dreamchild, performed by Meadows faculty Kara Kirkendoll (flute), Naoko Nakamura (harp) and Barbara Sudweeks (viola), and Down the Rabbit-Hole for woodwind quintet. The Julius Quartet, Meadows' Peak Fellowship Ensemble-in-Residence, will perform Koch's String Quartet #3, "Schöne Welt, wo bist du?" Also on the program is Images of Lorca, a solo piano piece influenced by the work of famed Spanish poet Federico Garcia Lorca, to be performed by faculty member Liudmila Georgievskaya.

Meadows Chamber Orchestra Student Conductors' Concert ✨

January 31 & February 2, 2020

7:30 p.m. Fri.; 2:30 p.m. Sun.

Caruth Auditorium / Owen Arts Center

The concert features a smaller-scale version of the Meadows Symphony Orchestra, led by students in the master's degree program in orchestral conducting.

Concerto Competition Winners' Concert ✨

April 17 & 19, 2020

7:30 p.m. Fri.; 2:30 p.m. Sun.

Caruth Auditorium / Owen Arts Center

The program features winners of the annual Meadows Concerto Competition, who are chosen to perform with the orchestra from a highly competitive field of talented Meadows undergraduate and graduate students. Highlighting the concert is the world premiere of Jason Mulligan's They Come Through the Wires, a short work inspired by horror films, novels and games that takes the listener on a journey through anger, fear, anxiety, momentary relief and back.

Meadows at the Meyerson 2020: Music and Legend

FEATURING THE MEADOWS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Tuesday, March 10, 2020

8 p.m.

Meyerson Symphony Center / 2301 Flora St., Dallas 75201

$25 for adults, $20 for seniors, $17 for students, faculty & staff
($10 discount available for subscribers)

The 27th annual benefit concert for SMU Meadows will feature the critically acclaimed Meadows Symphony Orchestra, led by conductor Paul Phillips, in two works focused on stories and legends. The concert opens with The Swan of Tuonela by Jean Sibelius, one of four tone poems by the composer based on Finnish mythology. The beautiful, moody music evokes Tuonela, the land of death, where a swan floats majestically on the river, singing, then fading into the distance. The MSO then performs what is considered Rimsky-Korsakov's most famous work, Scheherazade, based on tales of the Arabian nights. It's been called "an exhilarating journey of love, intrigue and adventure" and "one of the most colorful, evocative and descriptive scores in all classical music." (Classic FM) Proceeds from the event provide scholarships for the Meadows Scholars Program, aimed at recruiting the brightest and most talented students to SMU and Dallas.

Meadows Wind Ensemble

MWE Plays the Classics ✨

Friday, September 13, 2019

7:30 p.m.

Caruth Auditorium / Owen Arts Center

The Classics program has become a tradition for the MWE and conductor Jack Delaney. It is always one of the most popular concerts of the season, with repertoire selected by members of the Ensemble. This can't-miss, Friday the 13th program will feature works by John Mackey, Eric Ewazen, Florent Schmitt, Vincent Persichetti and Richard Strauss. We can't think of a better way to open the season!

Days of Drums... ✨

Friday, October 11, 2019

7:30 p.m.

Caruth Auditorium / Owen Arts Center

A British journalist described JFK's funeral activities as follows: "What I heard those days were not muffled cries of grief, nor solemn words, but the drums. Those were the days of drums." Days of Drums will be a celebration of drums and drumming, featuring Eric Ewazen's The Eternal Dance of Life, a piece written on commission for the MWE and legendary percussion ensemble NEXUS. This performance will feature the Meadows Percussion Ensemble, directed by Jon Lee. Other works include Warren Benson's Symphony for Drums and Wind Orchestra, Joseph Schwantner's and the mountains rising nowhere, works by two of our student percussionists, Austin Allen and Alex Shawver, and one classic chosen by members of the MWE!

Cancer Blows, But It Can't Stop Ryan Anthony! ✨

Friday, November 15, 2019

7:30 p.m.

Caruth Auditorium / Owen Arts Center

The MWE welcomes DSO principal trumpet, Meadows faculty member and virtuoso soloist Ryan Anthony for a performance of Renaissance of Wonder by Pete Meechan, written on commission for Mr. Anthony—a piece inspired by Ryan's courage in his ongoing battle with multiple myeloma. Other works on the program include Karel Husa's Music for Prague, the world premiere of Meadows graduate student Aaron Stanley's Celestial Orbit, and Gunther Schuller's Symphony for Brass and Percussion. This will be the MWE's first performance of Schuller's Third Stream classic since the late composer conducted the work with the MWE in November 2013, after which he said, "This is the finest student ensemble I've ever conducted!"

Vienna Rocks! ✨

Friday, February 21, 2020

7:30 p.m.

Caruth Auditorium / Owen Arts Center

Throughout history Vienna has been a rockin' place for artists, especially musicians. Vienna Rocks! celebrates that rich musical heritage with performances of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart's iconic

Serenade in B-flat, the "Gran Partita" (though Mozart never actually used the title "Gran Partita"!), Franz Krommer's Octet-Partita in B-flat, Op. 67, and Ludwig von Beethoven's Octet in E-flat, Op. 103. The program will close with the premiere of a setting of the late Austrian rock star Falco's Rock Me Amadeus, arranged on commission for the MWE and scored for rock band, vocalist and wind orchestra. You never know what you're going to get at an MWE show!

Double-Trouble! ✨

Friday, April 3, 2020

7:30 p.m.

Caruth Auditorium / Owen Arts Center

When one reed isn't enough, you've got Double-Trouble! This concert features music that, itself, features double-reed instruments: oboes and bassoons. The program includes performances of Lukas Foss's Concerto for Oboe and Chamber Orchestra, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart's Overture from The Marriage of Figaro, Jonathan Dove's Figures in the Garden (an octet based on music from Figaro), and one classic to be chosen by members of the MWE—the votes are still coming in!

The Ink's Still Wet! ✨

Friday, May 1, 2020

7:30 p.m.

Caruth Auditorium / Owen Arts Center

The Ink's Still Wet! is a celebration of new music by a diverse group of composers that explores an equally diverse sound-scape. The five world premieres include works by Meadows composers Professor Robert Frank and students Alex Shawver, Quinn Mason and Nicolas Farmer. As if THAT isn't enough, the MWE welcomes DSO principal trumpet, Meadows faculty member and trumpet virtuoso Ryan Anthony as soloist for the premiere of the wind ensemble setting of Tony DiLorenzo's Fujisan, inspired by, and written for, Mr. Anthony. The evening will conclude with a meet & greet reception with the composers and Ryan Anthony in Caruth Lobby following the performance. Could there be a more spectacular way to close the season?!

An Evening of Piano Quintets

Monday, October 28, 2019
7:30 p.m.

Caruth Auditorium / Owen Arts Center

Five distinguished Meadows faculty members – David Karp, piano; Aaron Boyd and Nathan Olson, violin; Barbara Sudweeks, viola; and Andres Díaz, cello – join together to present two of the most thrilling piano quintets from the 19th and 20th centuries: Shostakovich’s profound, humorous and ironic Opus 57 (1940) and Brahms’ titanic F minor, Opus 34 (1864).

Joaquín Achúcarro: Piano Recital Honoring Jeanne R. Johnson

Tuesday, March 24, 2020
7:30 p.m.

Caruth Auditorium / Owen Arts Center

World-renowned concert pianist, recording artist and Joel Estes Tate Professor Joaquín Achúcarro presents a solo piano recital honoring the memory of the late Jeanne Roach Johnson (1932-2017), a Dallas civic leader, investor and philanthropist who was a longtime supporter of SMU and the Meadows School. The program will include works by Mozart, Beethoven, Rachmaninoff and Ravel. Achúcarro’s international performing career spans six decades. He has toured more than 60 countries, performed with over 200 major orchestras and 350 noted conductors, and has numerous critically acclaimed recordings to his credit. He has held the Tate chair at SMU Meadows since 1989, adjusting his teaching periods to his busy concert schedule.

Così fan tutte

By Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart & Lorenzo Da Ponte
With the Meadows Opera Orchestra

Directed by Hank Hammett

Conducted by Paul Phillips

February 6-9, 2020

7:30 p.m. Thurs.-Sat.; 2 p.m. Sun.

Bob Hope Theatre / Owen Arts Center

The students at Mozart’s and Da Ponte’s “School for Lovers” have learned many of their lessons well. But now it’s time to set aside reading, writing and arithmetic for some one-on-one experimentation in the lab where they must answer the question, “What does it mean to love and be loved?” As they examine, dissect, manipulate and explore their subject, two young engaged couples find the art of romance can be filled with desire, suspicion, disillusionment and astonishing surprises. Sung in Italian with English supertitles.
