

Peer Evaluation of Online Courses Form

Name: _____ Reviewer: _____ Course: _____
Date: _____

COURSE INFORMATION

Examples of areas to examine: syllabus

provides comprehensive information about the course, a concise overview/description of the course is provided, a course schedule with due dates for all assignments is listed, content is organized into appropriate segments (e.g., weeks, units, modules, topics), content is logically sequenced, resources are current, etc

Comments

DESIGN

Examples of areas to examine: course site is easy to navigate,

course materials reflect best practices for accessibility, graphic design of the course is consistent, instructional materials are available in multiple media formats etc.

Comments

STUDENT SUPPORT

Examples of areas to examine: technical support for any issue associated with learning technologies is provided, resources are listed to support student success (e.g., tutoring, research, mental health), etc.

Comments

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Examples of areas to examine: objectives are appropriate to the level of the course, objectives are provided for each activity/unit/module, objectives are measurable, etc.

Comments

ACTIVITIES AND ASSIGNMENTS Examples of areas to examine: activities and assignments are developed to engage students on a deep level. a number of activities/assignments are built to foster interaction among students, etc.

Comments

ASSESSMENT/GRADING Examples of areas to examine: multiple types of assessment are used to measure student progress, requirements to successfully complete the course are clearly stated, etc.

Comments

Additional Comments