

Pink Week 2018

November 12 – 17th

This year marks a quarter century of Pink Week, 25 years! Pink Week began in 1993 by Gioia Fonda while attending California School of Arts & Crafts now its celebrated across the country and in Europe. This 25-year interactive art project is coming to an end, this will be the final year of Pink Week. At UW-Green Bay we have participated in Pink Week for 15 years – which seems hard to believe.

- 2003: UW-Green Bay Begins celebrating Pink Week
- 2004: Professor Detweiler is named Pink Week Ambassador of Pink
- 2006: UW-Green Bay named the first ever Pink Week Embassy

This year's activities will include:

- Art Agency Pink Week Exhibition in 407 Gallery: Join Art Agency (the student Art Club) & participate in the exhibition! Contact Brianna Fisher or Sarah Detweiler for info.
Brianna Fisher: fiscb30@uwgb.edu
Sarah Detweiler: detweils@uwgb.edu
- Public performance/installation by Sarah Detweiler & Kayla Bauer
- Pink Week Retrospective at the Kondos Gallery at the Sacramento City College featuring photographs of Sarah Detweiler.
- Commemorative Pink Week packages will be for sale all proceeds will go to help purchase supplies (saddle stapler) etc. for the new Art Agency sister Org called A2Z (A2 Zine). Prices: Small packages $5 & Large packages $10. If enough $ is raised it will allow me to also fund an award at the Student Juried show.
