

CELEBRATING
UW-GREEN BAY
GRADUATES

MAY 2021

ON THE COVER:

THE UNIVERSITY MACE, A LONG-HELD TRADITION

The University Mace—a ceremonial staff signifying authority—is typically carried by the University's most senior faculty member during official ceremonies such as commencements and inaugurations. Historically, mace bearers protected the leader of a kingdom, cathedral or university. Today's versions are works of art used in civic and academic ceremonies, typically at larger universities in the United States. UW-Green Bay's mace offers a contemporary turn on this medieval tradition with a stainless-steel design, with a Phoenix standing upon a representation of an ancient astronomical instrument, in this case bearing images of the Milky Way and the double helix of DNA. The piece was created in 2001 by acclaimed metals artist and UW-Green Bay faculty member, Prof. Emeritus David Damkoehler.

CELEBRATING UW-GREEN BAY GRADUATES MAY 2021

PHOENIX FIGHT SONG

Hail! To the Fighting Phoenix
Rise up and light the flame!
Green Bay is the home of Champions
We're gonna' win this game!
Hail! To the Fighting Phoenix
We're rising up to say
Fight! Fight! Fight! For a win tonight
The Champions from old Green Bay!

ALMA MATER

Let us rise above these waters,
Men and women of Green Bay.
Rise in knowledge,
Rise in wisdom,
Rise in friendship sealed today.

As the Phoenix rose from flame,
Let us rise and still proclaim,
That we pledge our Alma Mater,
And the memories of her name.

"Alma Mater" composed by Prof. Emeritus Lovell Ives with lyrics by former Prof. Peter Stambler

CONGRATULATIONS

Dear Graduate,

Congratulations on graduating from the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay!

Your accomplishments and persistence to degree completion during a pandemic is remarkable. Under normal circumstances, you would be reading this letter during the commencement ceremony and you would be hearing our comments from a stage. Instead, I am meeting most of you individually, but know that even those who could not attend the amended ceremony are still very much on our minds and in our hearts.

Many of you worked tirelessly to balance work and family with your studies; to overcome challenges of all kinds; to learn in different modalities and adapt to new things that were unfamiliar. You tackled every possible roadblock that could be in your way to get to this point. I have great admiration, that despite the most difficult circumstances, you never quit.

My greatest hope is that you leave not only with a degree, but also understanding the obligation that comes with it—to value those around you, to see the world through many lenses, and to lead for the greater good—in whatever path you choose. While this degree marks a significant milestone in your education, I urge you to continue being a learner for your entire life.

Remember, that there is a tremendous responsibility that comes along with your degree and great potential to make a difference. I hope you will realize that full potential and join the 40,000-plus Phoenix alumni that are making a positive impact in their communities. We are here to support you on that journey.

It is an honor for me to serve this great University. We are proud of your accomplishments and hope you take time to celebrate this important milestone in your life.

Sincerely,

A stylized, handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Michael Alexander'.

Note: Abby Tower was selected from a number of nominations to be this semester's Commencement Speaker. As COVID-19 postponed the University's plans to celebrate with a traditional ceremony, Tower's speech was recorded and released May 15, 2021 at news.uwgb.edu and will be shared widely.

MAJORING IN YOURSELF

Even before her first step on campus, Abby Tower was determined to explore a college path less traveled. Along the way, she discovered one of the best reasons to go to college—to forge meaningful connections with professors, fellow students, people in the community and herself.

Though it's readily evident that Tower could attain any career she set her mind to, her heart would have to come with. She's been described by professors as a "truly exceptional student...even among our best and brightest...articulate, inspiring and passionate." Plus possessing "tremendous intellectual curiosity, combined with a desire to understand social, political, and historical problems in their full complexity."

"I really didn't know what to expect coming into college, to be completely honest. (She only applied to two schools.) But UW-Green Bay had an ESL certificate program and that's what I wanted to pursue." Other than that, she approached college as an experience. "I wanted a fresh start. UW-Green Bay gave me the opportunity to be my own person and discover what I was passionate about without the weight of expectations of my peers from my hometown."

Tower took her "exploratory" approach to college to a whole new level. She remembers. "I probably changed my major between 15 and 20 times. I haven't had 20 separate majors, but I have changed the combinations."

To those who may consider such an approach inefficient, let the record show Tower is graduating with a double major in Political Science and Democracy and Justice Studies with an emphasis in the U.S. and the World, plus a triple minor in Spanish and Latin American Studies, Teaching English as a Second Language (TESL Certificate), and World Cultures.

All in four years and a 4.0 GPA. Her secret? "I just took the classes that excited me and inspired me to want to learn more, and it worked out for me."

Hi UW-Green Bay Class of 2021,

I hope this speech finds you well during these unprecedented times. This has been the catchphrase of the past year, but I still vividly remember hearing those words: “Good Afternoon, these are unprecedented times. Classes will be virtual for the next two weeks.”

And in that moment, I knew I had prioritized the wrong thing.

Because when everything went virtual, when we added the new words “social distancing,” “face masks,” and “Microsoft Teams” to our vocabulary, it wasn’t the grades that I wanted most. It wasn’t the internship title. It wasn’t even “Tiger King” or sleeping in. It was people.

Up until that point in the semester, I had spent all of my time narrowly focused on my classes with the mindset that if I could just secure a high enough grade, I could ease back at the end of the semester. If I could just complete everything early, I could spend the rest of the time with my friends.

And that never happened, that’s time I did not get back. Lesson learned.

If the past year in the pandemic has taught us anything, it’s the importance of people. It’s the value of investing in our relationships in ways that are inconvenient and at times incredibly difficult. It’s the choosing to be aware of the needs in our community when it’s easier to look away, and it’s the joining in with compassion to support those around us.

Graduates, each one of us has worked so hard to get here today, and I am truly proud of us all. While each of us leaves with a degree, we are leaving with so much more than a piece of paper, a line on our resume, or a few extra letters at the end of our names. We are leaving with the knowledge and skills to go out into our communities, to be change-makers and advocates for the causes we believe in. Throughout our time at UWGB, we weren’t just training for jobs or even learning how to “adult,” we were being transformed into global citizens with an awareness of the world and how we could personally make a difference.

I would not be here speaking to you today without the help of my own community. To my family, thank you for your enduring love and support, for letting me pursue my own path, and for encouraging me along the way—no matter how many changes to my majors and minors it took me to get here. To my friends, thank you for the late-night fast-food runs, the memes and jokes that made me laugh until I cried. In all seriousness, I’m truly honored to call you some of my favorite people, and I will forever be grateful to UW-Green Bay for bringing us together.

Thank you to the faculty and staff, who dedicated so much time and energy to support us in our intellectual and personal journeys, who challenged us to think critically and independently, and this last year, who worked tirelessly at a minute’s notice to adapt to the circumstances of the pandemic—from in-person classes to virtual, hybrid, and other modalities I didn’t even think were possible.

Thank you to those working in tech who kept us connected in new ways; to the custodial staff and food service workers who risked their lives and safety to make returning in-person, possible; and to the healthcare workers who served on the frontlines to keep us safe and healthy.

We recognize those we have lost during the pandemic. May their memory be a blessing.

And to my fellow graduates, I am so proud of your resilience, rising up from the various challenges the pandemic brought in the true spirit of a Phoenix. As we go forward, some of us will be starting jobs while others will be continuing our education. Some of us will strengthen our roots and continue to call Green Bay home, while others will enter new communities. No matter where you end up, maintain the relationships in your life and invest in your communities.

As you spread your wings, spread kindness and compassion and always put people first. Congratulations Class of 2021 – we did it!

GRADUATING CLASS SPEAKER

If “things working out” meant making the most of every opportunity, faculty quickly noticed and appreciated the effort. Professor Jennifer Ham, chair of Humanities and Abby’s internship supervisor, notes that “Abby is an exceptional student, always awake, always thinking, reflecting and looking for new angles and approaches to situations.” She’s also been praised for a “tremendous intellectual curiosity combined with a desire to understand social, political, and historical problems in their full complexity.”

Not bad for someone, who as a first-year student, wandered into a professor’s office, completely lost. “I remember telling a professor, I didn’t know what I want to major in. I didn’t have a ‘dream’ career and I didn’t know what I was doing. I remember feeling like I needed to have my whole life planned out by then.”

Then came a bit of advice that still stays with her. “A professor told me I could spend my four years here and just go to class—which would be fine—or I could go to class and get to know my classmates, my professors and the community. They told me that my time at UW-Green Bay would be the experience that I chose for it to be. That stuck with me. Getting involved as much as possible.”

Few have been more involved—inside the classroom, as a peer success coach, teaching assistant and teaching English as a second language—and with internships at Casa ALBA Melanie, a Hispanic Resource Center of the greater Green Bay area; The Brown County Public Defenders Office; plus teaching English as a Second Language at Literacy Green Bay.

So what to do for an encore? She’s currently completing an honors project on domestic policies and discourse dealing with refugees and asylum seekers.

As far as post-graduation—there are currently no ivory aspirations for this Tower.

“I’m taking a few years off, looking at different roles with a variety of local non-profits, research and legal assistantships.” She does see law school in her future, but not right away. These days, community comes first. “I like working alongside people and finding common solutions together. And working toward change. That drives a lot of the decisions I make.”

Tower sets off to her next adventure with this advice to any first-year college student feeling lost.

“Don’t get so focused necessarily on finding the right major or the right career, that you forget your passions and what you’re actually interested in.”

This is certainly one Phoenix that won’t be soon forgotten.

ACADEMIC RITUAL and ATTIRE

The procedure followed for awarding of degrees at most American universities is based on a practice developed at the University of Paris almost 800 years ago. In those days, the Bishop of Paris, like every other bishop, was responsible for educational matters. As the new university developed, he naturally claimed authority over curriculum and degree granting. His authority however was disputed by teachers who asserted only they could judge students' qualifications.

A threatened impasse was resolved by a compromise under which the teachers judged the merits of the students and then recommended them to the bishop for their degrees. You see a secularized version with the Vice Chancellor, as representative of the faculty, certifying the students as qualified. The Chancellor, as representative of the Regents, who have replaced the bishop as the governing authority, then authorizes the awarding of degrees.

The caps and gowns worn by graduates and faculty are based on costumes used in universities of the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries, particularly at Oxford and Cambridge in England. The academic dress has been used in the United States from colonial times and was standardized by Intercollegiate Code in 1895. The black gowns worn by the associate, bachelor's, master's and doctoral degree holders differ in design and ornamentation, particularly in the sleeves. The cap is black mortarboard with the tassel worn over the left front quadrant. Undergraduate candidates shift their tassel from right to left at the time their degrees are conferred.

Hoods symbolize the master's and doctoral degrees, with the colors representing the field of study and the awarding institution. Graduates may wear regalia in recognition of academic status and honor society memberships.

THE MEANING OF HONORS

The use of Latin terms reflects the medieval origins of academic ceremony: cum laude indicates distinction; magna cum laude, great distinction; summa cum laude, highest distinction.

At UW-Green Bay, students achieve a 3.5 to 3.749 grade point average (on a 4.0 scale) to graduate cum laude. Magna cum laude honors are awarded to students who achieve a cumulative average of 3.75 to 3.849. For highest honors — summa cum laude — students must average 3.85 or higher; or a 3.75 to 3.849 plus eligibility for and successful completion of an honors-in-the-major project. To qualify for honors, students must complete 48 credits in residence.

Some majors offer special distinction honors in the major. For this distinction, students must achieve a 3.5 or higher grade point average on all courses required for their major, and a 3.75 grade point in all junior-senior level major courses required, and complete an honors-in-the-major project.

Students graduating with honors will be recognized as such with the following after their name:

* Cum laude

** Magna cum laude

***Summa cum laude

† Honors in the major

UNIVERSITY LEADERSHIP AWARD

ABOUT UW-GREEN BAY

UW-Green Bay fearlessly rises to face challenges, solve problems, embrace diversity and forge access to education for all who seek it. That enterprising spirit has made this University the fastest-growing UW school in the region. With campuses in Marinette, Manitowoc, Sheboygan and Green Bay, students discover their calling through 200 academic programs. UW-Green Bay is a safe haven for resilient problem-solvers, fearless dreamers, fun-seekers and forward-looking achievers to dream big and prepare for the future. UW-Green Bay's mission is to give all students wings.
