

MILITARY STUDIES

MINOR

WHAT

- The Military Studies (MILS) minor is an interdisciplinary program that studies military practices and institutions throughout history and around the world.
- Topics include: traditional wars & battles, diplomacy, public policy, leadership, ethics, and more!

WHO

- YOU! Any student, regardless of major, can add this minor.

WHY

- Personal interest and/or connection to military service
- Concern for national and world affairs
- Desire to learn more about this integral part of global matters, past & present
- Appreciation for the military: its servicemembers, its history, and its place in society

REQUIREMENTS

3 hrs. HIS 2370: History of Warfare

3 hrs. History*

3 hrs. Political Science*

3 hrs. Philosophy or Religion*

6 hrs. Elective*

18 hrs. TOTAL

must be upper-level & from approved list*

CAREERS

- Military or civilian service
- Government
- Business
- Education
- Leadership in any field or career

Questions? Contact:

Dr. Julie Anne Sweet
Director of Military Studies
Professor of History
254-710-6303
Julie_Sweet@Baylor.edu
Tidwell 104.16

Add the minor!

Just talk to your advisor to see how you can add the Military Studies minor!