

SINS OF OMISSION:

The Rollin Sisters and the SC Suffrage Movement

PRESENTED BY VALINDA
LITTLEFIELD
History

AUGUST 10 • 2 p.m.

Arts and Sciences

go.sc.edu/CASwebinars

African American women began the suffrage movement in South Carolina. This is their story.

The College of Arts and Sciences at the University of South Carolina presents

Sins of Omission: The Rollin Sisters and the SC Suffrage movement

by Valinda Littlefield, associate professor of History

Monday, August 10, 2 p.m. on the Zoom app

In connection with the 100-year anniversary of women's suffrage

Learn more and register at go.sc.edu/CASwebinars