

Welcome to September 2021. CCR begins Monday September 13th at 1:00 p.m. on ZOOM (email with zoom link coming soon!). Our Fall semester is planned and ready to go.

SEPTEMBER PROGRAMS

Monday, September 13. Joseph P. Riley, Jr. will share his experiences as the longest serving Mayor in Charleston history, 1975 - 2016. The former Mayor, now Professor of American Government and Policy at The Citadel, will share stories about Charleston's transformation from a decaying urban center to a top cultural destination. He helped diffuse racial tension by working closely with the African American community. After hurricane Hugo, his crisis leadership got Charleston quickly cleaned up and functioning again.

Monday, September 20. We have all been under stress during this past year. Dr. Antoinette Biegaj, Doctor of Chiropractic and founder of Family Wellness Chiropractic, will tell us how to Win the Battle of Stress with BrainTap. What is BrainTap and how does it work? Find out.

Monday, September 27. I can't find my keys? Where did I leave them? Did this memory lapse ever happen to you? Daniel Greenberg, Associate Professor and Chair of the Department of Psychology at The College of Charleston, is going to help us understand The Mysteries of Memory. Programs will be presented on ZOOM. You will receive an email on Thursday morning, and on Monday morning, with the ZOOM link. Please join us at 12:50 for an informal group chat. At 1:00 p.m. the program will start. You can participate by typing in questions and comments on the ZOOM chat. All previously registered CCR members will receive the ZOOM links through this semester.

OCTOBER REGISTRATION AND DUES

Registration will start in October. We will use the College of Charleston MarketPlace website as we did last year. You will find the CCR Box on the Marketplace Page - Click - and you can then follow the prompts to register - add your name, address, phone contact, and email. Our dues are $50 for the full year, $30 for a semester. You pay by credit card so follow the directions on the site. (You do NOT need to login - just proceed as a guest to pay.) You can also call Alison Burkey at The Riley Center to register and provide your credit card information for payment. 843 953-6103. We are encouraging all members to pay the dues this year (optional last year) so that our revenues can support our expenses of the new location at Founders Hall and assure that our CCR activities can get up and running in 2022.

DECEMBER 13 - FOUNDERS HALL CELEBRATION We are planning a Holiday Program and Open House for all members to join us at Founders Hall.

CALL - FALL TERM OCTOBER 12 - NOVEMBER 19

Diana Barth and her Committee have another interesting semester! Classes will begin on ZOOM, and if protocols allow, in a hybrid setting at The Riley Center classroom. October 13. (One Session). Two entomologists who literally helped write the book on insects in SC will talk about our dwindling numbers of pollinators, bees, and butterflies. October 20. (One Session). An historian looks at one of the great battles of WWII from interviews with men who fought it. Tuesdays: Two courses: Satellites and Time and the Universe. Thursdays: Two courses: Detective Fiction and Figuring Out Who Done It? The Constitution - Congress and the President. Readers' Theater returns in person and Poetry UnChained will be a new offering on Zoom. The full Catalog and information about registration will be sent by email the first week of September. Contact Diana Barth. dianabarth09@gmail.com

CCR - YOUR FUTURE - YOUR IDEAS

With the impact of the pandemic, CCR has to take a hard look at what's ahead. Your Board will be asking you - through a survey to be sent later this month - what you see as the future for CCR and how to best manage the months, year(s) ahead. In the meantime, please stay healthy - get vaccinated - plan for the booster shot - remain vigilant - and try to be optimistic.

Go to the CCR Website for more information and the complete Fall Semester Program Schedule. go.CofC.edu/CCR

THANK YOU FOR BEING PART OF CCR

SEE YOU ON SEPTEMBER 13TH - ZOOM

Catherine Langlois, President

Center for Creative Retirement

cathmlang@msn.com