Summer 2014

Addlestone Library Renovations Reminder

Despite the major renovations currently underway at Addlestone Library, students will still have access to library resources throughout the summer term. The library will continue to provide the best quality service to our patrons throughout the improvement project. Interlibrary Loan and PASCAL will be available to assist Faculty and Students with articles and books requested for summer classes. The Circulation Desk will continue to provide course reserve services during the summer sessions. Patrons will also have access to the Media Collection throughout the summer.

To stay up to date on the progress, check out the Addlestone Library Improvement Project blog at blogs.cofc.edu/addlestone-improvement. Questions about access and services provided during the project can be directed to addlestoneimprovement@cofc.edu.

Summer 2014 Orientation Recap

We had a great time welcoming our newly admitted graduate students last week at the Summer 2014 orientation! Students were hosted in the picturesque Alumni Memorial Hall for refreshments and conversation to introduce them to the opportunities and services available as graduate students here at the College. We are thrilled to welcome all of our new graduate students and look forward to their successful careers here at the College of Charleston!
