

THE DEPARTMENT OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

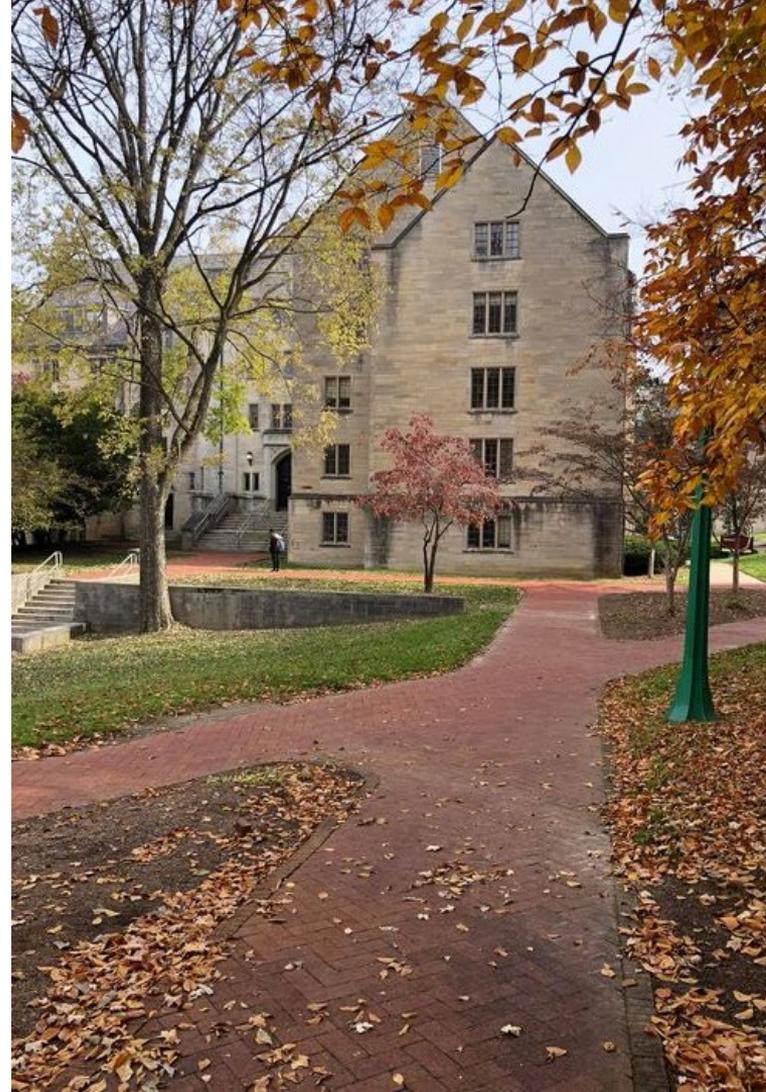

Department of Criminal Justice, Indiana University Bloomington

- 11 Tenure-Track Faculty
- 2 Senior Lecturers
- 20+ Ph.D. Students
- ~500 Undergraduate Majors, Minors,
and Certificates
- 4+1 Pathway for Undergraduates

Department Leadership

- Dr. Natalie Hipple
Department Chair
- Dr. Miriam Northcutt Bohmert
Director of Graduate Studies
- Dr. Jonathan Brauer
Director of Undergraduate Studies
- Dr. Molly Block
4+1 Coordinator

Faculty Research Interests

Jon Brauer, Associate Professor

theories of crime and deviance; cross-national and comparative criminology; child and adolescent development; causes and consequences of discrimination; replication & reproducibility

Fiona Chan, Assistant Professor

white-collar crime; corporate injustice; regulatory crime enforcement and prevention; the use of A.I. in criminal justice processes and research

Bonnie Ernst, Assistant Professor

race; gender; prisons; history of criminal justice

Tri Keah Henry, Assistant Professor

discretionary decision-making; racial and ethnic disparities in criminal justice processing; procedural justice and legitimacy in policing

Natalie Hipple, Professor

police partnerships; police problem solving; gun violence; homelessness; higher education policing; evaluation of criminal justice programs

Faculty Research Interests

Roger Levesque, Professor

psychology and law; adolescence; family violence

Miriam Northcutt Bohmert, Associate Professor

prisons, jails, community supervision; social psychological influences and environmental contexts; gender and intersectionality

Jennifer O'Neill, Assistant Professor

criminological theory; juvenile delinquency; identity and crime; schools and deviance

Bruce Sales, Professor

psychosocial analyses of law and criminal justice

Marla Sandys, Associate Professor

jury behavior; capital punishment

Arvind Verma, Professor

policing; criminal justice in India; criminal justice data analysis

Fun Facts about CJUS

- We have had several names since our inception in 1935:
 - Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology
 - Department of Police Administration
 - Department of Forensics Studies
 - Department of Criminal Justice
- Robert F. Borkenstein, inventor of the Breathalyzer, joined Indiana University and the department in 1958.
- The Ph.D. program was launched in 1997. In 2002, we awarded our first Ph.D. to Natalie Kroovand Hipple, the current Chair of the department.
- We are part of the College of Arts + Science with over 70 College departments and programs to deepen your expertise across many fields.

mcja
2022

Thank you to our
Gold Sponsors

University of
CINCINNATI
Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, CRIMINAL JUSTICE, AND HUMAN SERVICES

mcja
2022

Thank you to our
Silver Sponsors

 COLLEGE OF ARTS + SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE
Indiana University Bloomington

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA AT OMAHA
SCHOOL OF CRIMINOLOGY
AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

BOISE STATE UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF PUBLIC SERVICE
Department of Criminal Justice

FERRIS STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

SIU SOUTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY PRESS
CARBONDALE

Amber Bailey

Stephanie

Hannah Rouse

INDIANA UNIVERSITY BLOOMINGTON

The Basics

- Indiana University was founded in 1820 – that make us over 204 years old!
- Our official colors are cream and crimson, but you will often see white and red used for our colors also.
- We do not have a mascot, but we are known as the Hoosiers. A nickname for residents of Indiana and everyone who finds a home at IU.
- IU's fight song is "Indiana, Our Indiana."

The IUB Community

- 36,833 undergraduate students
- 10,694 graduate students
- 140+ countries represented in our student body
- 175 international and multicultural student organizations
- 770,000+ alumni

Cultural Centers & Institutes

- African American Arts Institute
- Asian Culture Center
- First Nations Educational and Cultural Center
- Jewish Culture Center
- La Casa Latino Cultural Center
- LGBTQ+ Culture Center
- Neal-Marshall Black Culture Center

Arts & Culture

- IU Auditorium
- IU Cinema
- Buskirk-Chumley Theater
- Eskenazi Museum of Art
- Neal-Marshall Black Culture Center
- The Kinsey Institute

Campus Events

- IU Dance Marathon
- First Thursdays Festivals
- Homecoming
- Little 500
- Solar Eclipse Events – 4/8/2024!
- Much more...

IU Athletics

- 24 Men's and Women's varsity sports – most of which you can watch for free
- 55+ club and intramural sports – from basketball to quidditch
- IU Recreational Sports offers an indoor walking path, group exercises, a variety of court sports, personal training, general exercise equipment for student's use

Explore Campus

Live Campus Weather Cam

Campus Virtual Tours

Fun Facts about IU

- The Little 500 started in 1951 and is the country's largest college bike race. The Academy Award winning 1979 movie, Breaking Away, was filmed in Bloomington and based on the Little 500.
- I.M. Pei, the architect of the Louvre Pyramid, also designed IU's Eskenazi Museum of Arts.
- It's a tradition for first-year students to shake the hand of the statue of Herman B. Wells (pictured right) for good luck.
- The Lilly Library holds a New Testament of the Gutenberg Bible, the First Folio of Shakespeare's works, and the first printed edition of The Canterbury Tales.
- Four red clocks around campus play the IU fight song at the top of every hour.
- The Showalter Fountain in the center of campus depicts the birth of Venus. One of the fish disappeared following the IU men's basketball victory march through campus during the 1987 NCAA Championship. A reproduction of the fish was restored to the fountain in 2009.

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA

City Information

- Named by USA Today as one of the country's Top College Towns.
- Bloomington's population was 79,168 in the 2020 census.
- Located in Monroe County in southern Indiana.
- Indianapolis International Airport about 1 hour drive away, with several shuttle services from the Bloomington area.
- Local Farmer's Markets every Saturday morning, April through November and every Tuesday afternoon, June through September.
- Enjoy the local outdoors at Griffy Lake, McCormick's Creek State Park, Brown County State Park, Morgan Monroe State Forest, and the Fairfax State Recreational Area.

Explore Bloomington

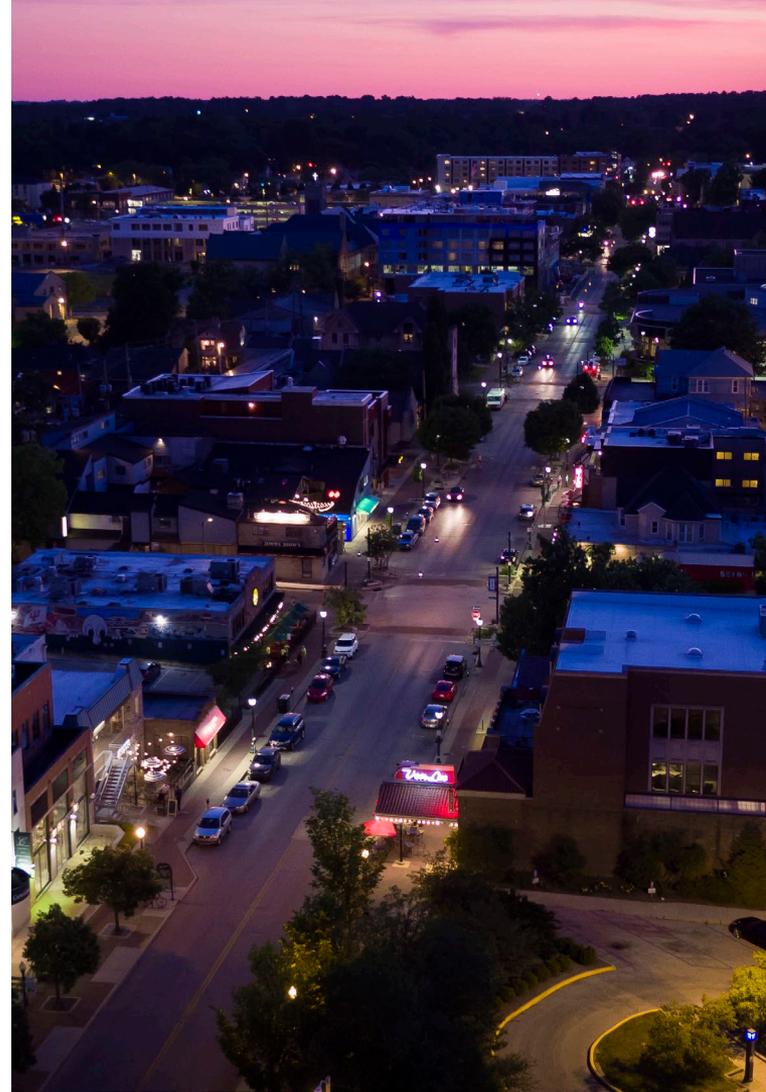

visitbloomington.com

2024 Virtual Visitor's Guide

Fun Facts about B-Town

- The first color television was manufactured in Bloomington. Sarkes Tarzian and RCA produced the RCA CT-100 on March 25, 1954 at the plant on South Rogers Street.
- Fluoride toothpaste (Crest) was invented in Bloomington.
- Founded in 1818 by a group of settlers who were impressed with “a haven of blooms” that they called it Bloomington.
- Bloomington is known as the “Gateway to the Scenic Southern Indiana.”
- According to Lumosity, Bloomington is ranked as the 7th smartest city in America!
- Indiana is called the Hoosier state. One theory: a man named Hoosier preferred to employ men from Indiana. He called his employees Hoosiers.

ADOPT A ROAD

Sigma Beta Phi

NO PARKING ANY TIME

REPAIRS

STOP

INDIANA UNIVERSITY BLOOMINGTON