THE GREATEST COON SONG EVER WRITTEN!

DORA DEAN

“The Sweetest Gal You Ever Seen”

Words and Music
BY Bert A. Williams
OF WILLIAMS & WALKER.

SCHOTTISCHE
Arranged by GEO. W. HETZEL.

Sung
With Great Success
by
CLIFFORD & HUTH
AND MANY OTHERS
SONG

Published by BRODER & SCHLAM
39 West 28 Street. NEW YORK.
26 28 30, O’Farrell Street. SAN FRANCISCO CAL.
DORA DEAN.

Arranged by GEO. W. HETZEL. Words and Music by BERT. A. WILLIAMS.

1. Way down in Loui-si-an-a, Dally where ole Sis-ter Han-nah,
   Bakes the crack-lin' bread up on the coals,
   Each one tried to cut a pig's com wing,
   With her daughter Do-ra Dean, Who

2. While down with Sis-ter Hol-ley, We all did feel so jolly,
   When up jumped Do-ra Dean, Who Copyright, 1884, by Broder & Schleier.

English Copyright Secured. is my dear old queen, Oh! I tell you, boys, she is a lump of gold. She said I am the queen, I can beat you in a dance for anything. That just goes to church on Sunday, You'll find her home on Monday, suit ed de Aunt Dinah, Who sang a tune in minor, Help ing all the folks the house to clean; Their home it looks so neat, You'll Thinking that she could the music make; So we start ed in to test, To find it hard to beat, The way it's kept by Do - ra Dean........... see who was the best, And Do - ra walk'd off with the cake...........

CHORUS.

Oh! have you ev - er seen my Do - ra Dean, She is the sweetest gal you ev - er seen; I'm gwine to make this gal sweet Do - ra, queen, Next Sun-day morn' I'm gwine to mar - ry sweet Do - ra Dean.............

D.C.