

Vera Lex

leges innumerae, una iustitia

CONTENTS

NEW SERIES VOLUME 4, NUMBERS 1 & 2

WINTER 2003

---

INTRODUCTION

Natural Law Theory and Feminism                      Lori Alward                      1

FEATURED ARTICLES: FEMINISM & NATURAL LAW

Feminism & Natural Law Theory:
Irreconcilable Differences?                      Nancy Snow                      5

Does Feminism Need Natural Law Like a Fish Needs a Bicycle?                      Shelby Weitzel                      23

ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY                      Lori Alward                      43

FEATURE

Austin's Complementary Jurisprudence                      Avner Levin                      61

REPORT

Annual International Meeting of the Maritain Association                      Gregory Kerr                      99

BOOK REVIEWS

Christine Swanton, *Virtue Ethics:
A Pluralistic View*                      Andrea Houchard                      103

J. B. Schneewind, The Invention of Autonomy: A History of Modern Moral Philosophy	Jeffrey Downard	109
Simone Chambers and Will Kymlicka, Alternative Conceptions of Civil Society	Nicholas Hunt-Bull	117
Robert R. Williams, Beyond Liberalism and Communitarianism: Studies in Hegel's Philosophy of Right	Paula J. Smithka	129
Jane Bennett, The Enchantment of Modern Life: Attachments, Crossings, and Ethics	J. N. Johnstone-Yellin	139
CONTRIBUTORS		147
CALLS FOR PAPERS		148