

Giving Well: the Ethics of Philanthropy, edited with Patricia Illingworth and Leif Wenar (Oxford: Oxford University Press 2010).

Contents

- Introduction: The Ethics of Philanthropy
1. Peter Singer
What Should A Billionaire Give – and What Should You?
 2. Elizabeth Ashford
Duties of Justice and Beneficence Towards the Severely Poor
 3. Thomas Pogge
How International NGOs Should Act
 4. Jon Elster
The Valmont Effect: The Warm-Glow Theory of Philanthropy
 5. Roger C. Riddell
Aiding the World's Poor: New Challenges for Donor States
 6. Leif Wenar
Poverty is No Pond: The Challenges of Individual Action
 7. Alex de Waal
Ethics in Translation: Principles and Power in the Philanthropic Encounter
 8. Kenneth Anderson
Global Philanthropy and Global Governance: The Problematic Moral Legitimacy of the Relationship between Global Civil Society and the United Nations
 9. Rob Reich
Toward a Political Theory of Philanthropy
 10. Patricia Illingworth
Giving Back: Rethinking Itemizing and the Water's Edge Policy In the Light of Social Capital
 11. James Shulman
The Funder as Founder: Ethical Considerations of the Creation of Non-Profit Organizations
 12. Thomas Dunfee
The Unfulfilled Promise of Corporate Philanthropy
 13. Devesh Kapur
Philanthropy, Self-Interest and Accountability: American Universities and Developing Countries

