

Freedom from Poverty as a Human Right Volume 2: Theory and Politics (Paris: UNESCO 2009).

Contents

1. Charles R. Beitz
 Protections against Poverty in the Practice of Human Rights
2. Jeremy Waldron
 Socioeconomic Rights and Theories of Justice
3. Sebastiano Maffettone
 Universal Duty and Global Justice
4. Jennifer Rubenstein
 Pluralism about Global Poverty
5. Jiwei Ci
 Agency and Other Stakes of Poverty
6. Neera Chandhoke
 Why Should People Not be Poor?
7. Paulette Dieterlen
 Taking Economic and Social Rights Seriously: A Way to Fight against Poverty
8. Frank I. Michelman
 Why Constitutional Law is Where Socioeconomic Rights Belong
9. Varun Gauri and Daniel Brinks
 The Impact of Legal Strategies for Claiming Economic and Social Rights
10. Oscar Vilhena Vieira
 Inequality and the Subversion of the Rule of Law
11. Christian Barry
 Human Rights Conditionality in Sovereign Debt Relief
12. Cécile Fabre
 Subsistence Wars
13. Edward Wamala
 Poverty Discourse in Sub-Saharan Africa: Human Rights Issues at Stake
14. John J. Williams
 Poverty: A Human Rights Violation in Post-Apartheid South Africa