

Thank you for your commitment to being a mentor this semester! For business students, this document contains some potential prompts to discuss with your mentees. Please feel free to use any of these ideas or develop your own in order to give your mentee better understanding of what being a business student entails.

POTENTIAL DISCUSSION TOPICS (BUSINESS MENTOR → MENTEE)

Take this time to discuss anything you think may be helpful for your mentee to know regarding the business school application and education process.

- “What led you to consider business school?”
- “What other career plans are you considering, if any?”
- “Are there specific business programs you are interested in?”
 - Combined JD/MBA, part-time program, etc.
- Discuss your overall journey – what led you to business school, your specific program, what you think are important qualities of pre-business and business students
 - Go beyond just academic qualities – also discuss personal characteristics and skills to develop
- “What concerns do you have about being a pre-business student? What have been the hardest parts so far?”
 - “What concerns do you have about potentially being a business student?”
- “Something I wish I knew before/while applying to business school is...”
