

Thank you for your commitment to being a mentor this semester! For law students, this document contains some potential prompts to discuss with your mentees. Please feel free to use any of these ideas or develop your own in order to give your mentee better understanding of what being pre-law entails and the field of law as a whole.

POTENTIAL DISCUSSION TOPICS (LAW MENTOR → MENTEE)

Take this time to discuss anything you think may be helpful for your mentee to know regarding the law school application and education process.

- “What led you to consider law school?”
- “What other career plans are you considering, if any?”
- “Are there specific law programs you are interested in?”
 - Combined JD/MBA, part-time law program, etc.
- Discuss your overall journey – what led you to law school, your specific program, what you think are important qualities of pre-law and law students
 - Go beyond just academic qualities – also discuss personal characteristics and skills to develop
- “What concerns do you have about being a pre-law student? What have been the hardest parts so far?”
 - “What concerns do you have about potentially being a law student?”
- “Something I wish I knew before/while applying to law school is…”
