

The Performance Studies Working Group at Yale presents
Performance All the Way Down

Monday, October 28
1:30–3:00pm

53 Wall Street, Room 208
New Haven, CT

A roundtable discussion featuring:
Kimberly Jannarone, Elise Morrison,
Richard O. Prum, Joseph Roach
and Richard Schechner

In his latest book, Richard O. Prum (William Robertson Coe Professor of Ornithology, Ecology and Evolutionary Biology at Yale) applies queer feminist performance theory to evolutionary biology, questioning the very foundations and formations of sex and gender in more-than-human beings. This roundtable brings Prum's inquiries into bio-performativity to bear on the field of Performance Studies and vice versa. Don't miss out!
