

All About My Evening

Written by: Teachers College Columbia U.
SLP Team & Ghana's Unit School Teachers
Illustrated by: Tina Yeung

Based on original illustrations by: Minna Park

Dedicated to the Unit School Special Education Teachers in the Ministry of Education of Ghana, Division of Special Education, who work tirelessly to reduce the stigma against students with disabilities and to create inclusive education and communities for these students.

Director: Catherine Crowley, J.D., Ph.D., CCC-SLP
Professor of Practice and Director of the Bilingual Extension Institute Program in Speech-Language Pathology
Teachers College, Columbia University
New York, New York 10027

For information: LEADERSproject.org
Creative Commons Attribution-Non-Commercial-NoDerivs 3.0

My mom greets me when I come home from school.

I change out of my uniform into comfortable clothes.

A young girl with dark skin and short hair, wearing a purple sleeveless dress and pink sandals, is cooking outdoors. She is standing next to a large grey pot that sits on a traditional three-tiered charcoal stove. She is using a wooden spoon to stir the contents of the pot. To her right is a white bucket filled with water. The background shows a simple outdoor setting with a brown tree on the left, a brown wall on the right, and a light blue sky. The ground is brown with some green grass and rocks.

When it is time to cook dinner, I help my mom.

Then, we eat dinner together.

After we eat, I wash
the dishes with soap and water.

Once I am done with my chores, I take a bath.

When I'm all clean, I do my homework.

To relax, I watch TV with my family.

After a long day, I get into bed and fall asleep.

