

Lafayette College
Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering
Visiting Assistant Professor of Civil and Environmental Engineering

The Lafayette College Department of Civil & Environmental Engineering invites applications for a one-year visiting Assistant Professor position in project and construction management with an emphasis on sustainable engineering practices and a starting date of August 2023. This is a full-time appointment with a teaching load of three courses each semester. Candidates should possess enthusiasm for teaching at the undergraduate level, the ability to communicate complex, technical concepts, and have a Ph.D. in civil engineering, construction engineering, or a related discipline, by August 14, 2023.

Applicants should submit a cover letter, a statement of teaching philosophy and interests, a curriculum vitae, and three letters of reference at: <http://apply.interfolio.com/120862>. Application materials should demonstrate the applicant's ability to teach courses in project and construction management and should address how the applicant's teaching might support Lafayette's commitment to diversity and inclusion as articulated in the College's diversity statement (<https://about.lafayette.edu/diversity-statement/>). Review of applications will begin on March 3, 2023. However, applications will be accepted until the position is filled. Questions about the position should be directed to Prof. Mary Roth, Search Committee Chair, at rothm@lafayette.edu.
