

CAMPUS RECREATION CENTER CONDUCT GUIDELINES

Georgia Tech's Campus Recreation Center (CRC) policies are designed for the protection of facilities users, attendees, visitors, employees, and facilities (Participants). The staff and Participants of the CRC appreciate your cooperation in making our facilities a friendly and positive environment for recreational and social opportunities. Individuals using the CRC are expected to be courteous to other facility users and employees and to follow the rules, policies, and safety instructions outlined by the CRC. Participants who engage in behavior or actions that might damage equipment or facilities, or pose a threat to the safety and wellbeing of themselves or others may lose privileges. The following are general rules that may be applied to any facility or program participant:

- Participants must adhere to the rules and guidelines set forth by the CRC.
- Participants must adhere to the Student Code of Conduct (<https://policylibrary.gatech.edu/student-life/student-code-conduct>) as applicable.
- Participants must observe all posted signs and verbal directions provided by CRC staff.
- Participants may not interfere with employee duties, use obscene language, or engage in verbal or physical abuse of employees or other participants.
- Use of drug, alcohol, and tobacco products are not permitted at CRC facilities or program venues. Attendees or participants identified as impaired will be removed from CRC facilities or program activities and may be referred to Georgia Tech Police Department, the Office of Student Integrity, and/or Georgia Tech Human Resources (GTHR).
- Threats of physical abuse, intimidation, coercion, retaliation or conduct which threatens the safety and wellbeing of others is prohibited.
- Participants must not abuse or misuse equipment or facilities, subject to the discretion of the CRC staff based on use of equipment safety standards.
- Participants must not physically interfere with the use of the facility and/or equipment by others using the CRC.
- Acts committed that result in or that may reasonably result in injuries or harm to any person are prohibited.

CRC staff reserves the right to ask Participants to leave and deny facility/program access for violations of any rules and/or guidelines of the CRC. After a rule or guideline violation, the CRC may require Participants to meet with CRC staff prior to further facility access or program participation. At the conclusion of the meeting, the individual will receive written notification of any applicable suspension. Staff may also refer students to the Office of Student Integrity and employees to GTHR for further investigation and response. Georgia Tech Police Department may also be notified depending on the severity of the behavior or incident.
