The 80% Experience

Questions and exercises for better understanding and supporting employees in the 80% (covered on pages 62–87 of the 2024 Global Culture Report).

As organizational leaders, we must constantly evolve our understanding of all facets of our workforce, most notably employees among the often overlooked 80% of workers worldwide who lack autonomy, opportunity, and technology in their roles. This group plays a pivotal role in our day-to-day operations, and this section is designed to deepen your insights into their experiences, challenges, and aspirations.

Through a blend of introspection, reflection, and actionable exercises, you will:

• Discover the nuances of the roles and stereotypes associated with the 80%
• Assess current disparities and identify opportunities for bridging the gaps
• Reevaluate perceptions of invisibility and inferiority, highlighting pathways to inclusivity
• Design recognition strategies that resonate with the needs and aspirations of the 80%
• Chart an actionable roadmap to transform your newfound insights into meaningful organizational initiatives

As you delve into each section, we encourage you to approach it with an open mind, ready to challenge pre-existing notions and eager to harness the untapped potential for those in the 80% at your organization. The learnings you acquire here can enhance their workplace experience and foster a holistic, inclusive environment where everyone can thrive at work.
UNDERSTANDING THE 80% EXPERIENCE

Discover the pivotal role of workers in the 80% within your organization and challenge pre-existing notions associated with them.

List three roles within your organization that fall within the 80%. For each role, note any generalizations or stereotypes that may exist about each.

Role 1:

Role 1 Generalizations and Stereotypes

Role 2:

Role 2 Generalizations and Stereotypes

Role 3:

Role 3 Generalizations and Stereotypes

Recall a time you interacted with someone from the 80% at your workplace. How did that interaction make you feel about their role and value? How common is their experience? How do you know this?

Reflect on the statement: “We’re expendable.” How does this statement resonate with the treatment of the 80% in your organization?
ASSESSING DISPARITIES AND OPPORTUNITIES

Highlight the gaps between potential and current realities to uncover untapped opportunities for your organization’s 80%.

Which statistics or findings from the report resonate the most with your organization’s situation? What about these statistics or findings resonate?

EXERCISE: MAPPING ACCESS AND ENABLEMENT

Assess Access
Using a scale of 1–10 (1 being lowest and 10 being highest), evaluate the level of access your 80% workforce has to:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Benefits</th>
<th>Technology</th>
<th>Tools</th>
<th>Opportunities</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Assess Enablement
Using the same scale, evaluate the level of autonomy, influence, and voice your 80% workforce has in:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Decision-making</th>
<th>Providing feedback</th>
<th>Shaping work environment</th>
<th>Improving processes</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Reflect on the results. Identify three significant gaps. How can they be bridged? What barriers exist in bridging these gaps?

Gap 1:                      Gap 2:                      Gap 3:

Gap 1 Reflection                Gap 2 Reflection                Gap 3 Reflection
BREAKING DOWN PERCEIVED INVISIBILITY AND INFERIORITY

Address the feelings of invisibility among the 80%, fostering an environment where every employee feels seen and valued.

How might biases towards the 80% manifest in your organization’s day-to-day operations and culture?

List at least two channels through which the 80% can provide feedback or voice concerns. How effective are these channels? How do they translate employee voice into action? How do the 80% know they have been heard?

Channel 1:

Channel 1 Reflection

Channel 2:

Channel 2 Reflection

Reflect on the last company event or celebration. Were the contributions of the 80% highlighted? If yes, how? Was it effective? How do you know? If not, why weren’t they celebrated?
DESIGNING MEANINGFUL RECOGNITION

Examine your recognition strategies tailored for the 80%. Reflect on their access, enablement, and feedback to ensure recognition truly resonates.

Brainstorm a list of potential recognition explicitly tailored for the 80%. How does this differ from your current recognition strategy? Do they have appropriate access and enablement?

Consult a few members of the 80% for their input on your list. How do they react to the proposed recognition?
IMPLEMENTING RECOMMENDATIONS

Transform insights into actionable steps, laying a roadmap for creating a holistic workplace experience for all.

Of the provided recommendations, which ones align best with your organization’s current state and future vision?

Chart a strategy to roll out one key recommendation over the next quarter. What are the milestones, challenges, and expected outcomes?

Strategy:

Milestone 1:
Milestone 1 Challenges
Milestone 1 Outcomes

Milestone 2:
Milestone 2 Challenges
Milestone 2 Outcomes
Milestone 3:

Milestone 3 Challenges

Milestone 3 Outcomes
