August 19 – September 20

F 3:00pm – 5:45pm

Description:

This course examines the rapid growth of the International Philanthropy sector. Topics include the history of global philanthropy, the causes of the boom over the past 50 years, the successes and failures, and sectors such as voluntourism, long-term service such as the Peace Corps, the NGO sector, and micro-finance. The course will focus on the marginalized urban neighborhoods of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.
