

Department of English
Doctoral Program in Rhetoric & Composition
Requirement Sheet

Student's Name: _____ Admission Date: _____

Panther ID# _____

Initial Faculty Advisory Committee: _____

M.A. Coursework Completed: _____ at _____ date name of university

in _____ degree program

ENGL 8125 Writing and Research Methodology _____ (3 hrs.)

ENGL 8170 Classical Rhetoric: Greek _____ (3 hrs.)

ENGL 8180 Composition Theory _____ (3 hrs.)

ENGL 8120 Proseminar: Writing for Academic Publication _____ (3 hrs.)

(Asterisk if completed during M.A. coursework)

Twelve hours of rhetoric, composition, technical communication, and strongly related courses (12 hrs.)

(Optional) Six hours in language, theory, literature, or any related fields outside of English upon approval by the student's advisor and Director of Graduate Studies (optional, max. 6 hrs.)

Electives as needed for a total of 30 hours of coursework beyond the M.A. level

Before sitting for comprehensive exams, Ph.D. students must complete coursework and satisfy the graduate research skill requirement through one of the following options (circle one):

MCL 7151 Language 2002 CLEP ENGL 8121/8123 MA

Other: _____

Exam specialization _____

Twenty hours ENGL 8999: Thesis Research _____