

IC Imagine Remote Learning Days (Asynchronous)

General Expectations for Students

- Contact teachers with questions and to get support with assignments.
- Assignments for the day must be completed within 5 days for students to be considered present for the day.
- K-2nd Graders: Teachers will send work via email by 10am.
- 3-12th Graders: Log onto Google Classroom at 10am or after to access lessons and assignments.

Lower School

K-4	ELA and Math assignments only Work will be sent by email from homeroom teachers (K-2) or posted to Google Classroom (3-4) by 10am 30 minutes of work per subject (1 hour total) All assignments will be due in 5 days, students will be counted present off site when assignment turned in
5	ELA, Math and Science Posts will be up on Google Classroom by 10am 30 minutes of work per subject (1.5 hours total) All assignments will be due in 5 days, students will be counted present off site when assignment turned in

Middle School

6-8	ELA, Math, Science, Social Studies Fine Arts classes will have ongoing projects or performance preparation with which students will be expected to engage as possible Posts on Google Classroom will be up by 10am 30 minutes of work for each subject (2 hours total) All assignments will be due in 5 days, students will be counted present off site when assignment turned in
------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Upper School

9-12	All Courses Posts on Google Classroom will be up by 10am 30 minutes of work for each subject (3.5 hours total) All assignments are due in 5 days, students will be counted present off site when assignments are turned in
-------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------