The piece:	Excellent	Good	Fair	Developing
Clearly articulates the role that writing plays in your life and your orientation toward GenerativeAI; uses a minimum of 500 words
Includes words, phrases, sentences, and/or structures that express your unique voice (this must match your detailed explanation in the analysis to get full credit)
Gives compelling, illustrative reasons to support your stance, citing at least two specific in-class comments/ideas/moments that contributed to the formation of your stance
Includes substantial changes, consistent with professor and peer feedback, from the first draft
Gives credit to any sources used in a consistent way of your choosing. Includes written explanation if student used GenAI during the writing process detailing how, when, and what they used along with a link to the prompts.
Writing free of any of the features listed below

* If your final draft has any of the features listed below, you may lose up to 50 points.

Features to avoid:

1. includes content that is clearly false (describes events, ideas, concepts, falsely, attributes fake quotes to real people, etc.)
2. demonstrates a level of understanding of some topic that far exceeds what the student demonstrated previously
3. uses an authorial voice that deviates from the student's prior writing
4. employs a rigidly formulaic structure akin to the tripartite formula that basic ChatGPT prompting yields
5. has incredibly generic content/lacks specificity
6. includes excessively flowery or unnecessary jargon
