

2022 Community Engagement Institute (CEI) Symposium

Oct. 21, 2022
9AM-12PM
Zoom

Rights to Health: Where do we go from here?

Addressing the barriers to health equity and ways that communities can work together to build momentum toward sustainable change. Join the conversation as our speakers share insights and help illuminate the pathway to a more equitable future.

Keynote Speaker

Sofia Gruskin, JD, MIA

Director, Institute on Inequalities in Global Health
Professor, Preventive Medicine, Keck School of Medicine
Professor, Law and Preventive Medicine, Gould School of Law
University of Southern California

Panelists: Featuring an interactive Q&A

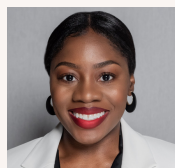

LaKeisha Williams, PharmD, MSPH

Director of Community Engagement and Outreach
Center for Minority Health and Health Disparities, Research and Education
Clinical Associate Professor, Xavier University of Louisiana

Caroline Compretta, PhD

Co-Director, Mississippi Center for Clinical and Translational Research (MCCTR)
Community Engaged Research Core
Assistant Professor, University of Mississippi Medical Center

JaTaune Bosby Gilchrist

Executive Director
American Civil Liberties Union of Alabama

With presentations from the Forge AHEAD Center Scholars:

The vision of the Forge AHEAD (Advancing Health Equity Across the Deep South) Center is to achieve health equity by eliminating disparities and improving outcomes in diabetes, obesity, and hypertension throughout the South. Scholars will share their research projects, followed by a Q&A session.

Learn more and register at go.uab.edu/ceisymposium

