HEALTH WEEK

@

UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE.

AN INITIATIVE OF THE AMERICAN PUBLIC HEALTH ASSOCIATION

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

This calendar was compiled by students in the Master of Public Health Program at the University of Delaware, a degree with concentrations in both Epidemiology and Health Policy and Management, in collaboration with the Partnership for Healthy Communities. The calendar includes virtual events in order to uphold COVID-19 regulations while still promoting National Public Health Week. These events are subject to change. Please contact the person or website listed for more event details.

National Public Health Week (NPHW) is sponsored by the American Public Health Association (APHA) and will take place from April 5th- 11th 2021. Join us all week as UD celebrates public health through panels, talks, and social media posts! Register and participate in designated events and you will be entered to win a $25 Amazon gift card!

Join the conversation each day of NPHW by following the College of Health Sciences on Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, and using the special hashtag, #UDSupportsNPHW! Also, check out CHS news for special articles featuring UD students, faculty and alumni!
