CEEP orientation for new students

CEEP held its 2014 orientation for the new students on Monday, August 25, in Clayton Hall. A range of research projects supported by the Center were introduced at the event to new and continuing students. Students also met faculty from across campus that support graduate study at the University of Delaware in energy-environment issues. More>>

Graduate Student Government Meetings

The Graduate Student Government (GSG) is an organization sponsored by the Office of Graduate and Professional Education which provides advocacy on behalf of graduate students at the University of Delaware. The GSG supports campus-wide activities facilitating graduate student professionalism and collegiality and seeks to influence the course of the University. In addition to sponsoring numerous events and providing support for University graduate students, the GSG provides many outlets for student involvement via committees (events, communications, social, diversity, student life & and sustainability) outreach. Every graduate student is represented in the GSG by a senator from his or her academic program, although every graduate student is welcome to participate in all GSG meetings and events. GSG meetings are held the second Thursday of each month and the next meeting will be September 11th from 5:30-7:30pm in Memorial Hall Room 127. For a schedule of GSG meetings and events visit the website at <http://sites.udel.edu/gsg/>. Contact Kelsea Schumacher (kschum@udel.edu) if you would like to learn more about the GSG.

EEPSA events in September 2014

- Welcome back to school BBQ - September 5, 2014
- Getting Started: Academic workshop kickoff - September 17, 2014
- EEPSA student body general meeting - September 24, 2014
- Academic Workshop: Session 1 - October 1, 2014

Event Spotlight: Academic Workshops!

The objective for academic workshops is for EEPSA members to: a) present and receive feedback on their work; b) become informed of the cornucopia of research, methodologies, frameworks and exploration that originates from community members; and c) improve collaborative potential with other students. The outcome of all events is for the speakers to become more conversant in their topics and for audience members to be exposed to a panorama of thought that is outside of their conventional means of knowledge acquisition.
