Energy and Environmental Policy Class of 2014

Energy and Environmental Policy Convocation

The undergraduate and graduate convocations at CEEP are an important part of the Center's calendar. To celebrate the Energy and Environmental Policy Class of 2015, the undergraduate and graduate convocations will be held on Friday, May 29, 2015. We hope to see you at this important event for our community!

PSA-EEPSA Workshop Series: How to Lower Energy Bills

Beginning this January, EEPsA is holding workshop series on energy and environmental topics for local communities at the Peoples Settlement Association (PSA) in Wilmington. PSA is a 501(c)(3) not for profit organization. Its mission is to provide an array of comprehensive social service programs and to improve the quality of life for Wilmington residents. The first PSA-EEPSA Workshop Series will take place on February 21, 2015 at the PSA offices in Wilmington. The topic is on no cost strategies for reducing energy bills. More>>

Event Spotlight: 2015 EEPsa Winter Student Forum

The 2015 EEPsa Winter Student Forum will be held on Friday, February 28, 2015 at 3:00 PM. The main purpose of the forum is to support second year master's students by providing them with opportunity to share research topics of their analytical paper/thesis with the CEEP community. The forum is also open to first-year master's student as well as doctoral students. The theme of this year's forum is "Emerging Opportunities for Energy Market Development and Low-carbon Innovations."

Jobs and Internships

EEPSA presents a wonderful collage of diversity, with members from various cultural and academic backgrounds. This quality has instilled CEEP with a richness of perspectives that has over the years become a hallmark of intellectual life at the center. It is great to be a member of EEPsa, since this provides a unique opportunity to closely interact with people from all over the world.
