

Corinne Elise Amato Prickett, Jones & Elliott, PA

CORINNE ELISE AMATO practices in the area of corporate and commercial litigation. Her practice primarily involves mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, and other complex corporate governance and business matters in the Delaware Court of Chancery.

Corinne is a magna cum laude graduate of both Franklin & Marshall College and Widener University School of Law. While attending law school, she served on the administrative board of The Delaware Journal of Corporate Law, was a member of Phi Kappa Phi National Honor Society, and served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Gregory M. Sleet, United States District Court Judge for the District of Delaware.

Corinne was admitted to practice in the State of Delaware in 2007. She has been recognized in the 2014 through 2017 and 2022 editions of Super Lawyers, named in The Best Lawyers in America© in 2021 and 2022 and Chambers rated. Corinne is also a frequent speaker at corporate law seminars, including seminars sponsored by the Tulane Institute of Corporate Law and Practising Law Institute (PLI).

Professional Activities:

- Corporation Law Council of the Corporation Law Section of the Delaware State Bar Association
- Delaware Supreme Court Rules Committee
- Court of Chancery Rules Committee
- American Bar Association, Business Law and Litigation Sections
- Richard S. Rodney American Inn of Court, Past Executive Committee Member and Secretary

Bar Admissions:

- Delaware
- New Jersey
- Pennsylvania
- United States District Court for the District of Delaware
- United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit

Rolin P. Bissell

PARTNER

rbissell@ycst.com

Wilmington P: 302.571.6560

With over 35 years of experience, Rolin's practice focuses on assisting boards of directors, private equity and venture funds with counseling and litigation concerning complex Delaware corporation law issues arising from major transactions, financial distress situations, and other forms of corporate crisis.

FOCUS:

- counseling directors, officers, special committees and stockholders on issues of merger and acquisition law, corporate and director liability, and other corporate governance issues;
- litigation in the Delaware Court of Chancery and Delaware Supreme Court concerning mergers and acquisitions, directors and officers liability and other corporate governance issues
- disputes concerning transactions with and governance of master limited partnerships, limited liability company and partnership agreements; and
- counseling and litigation concerning the restructuring, mergers and acquisitions, and refinancing of distressed companies.

He speaks and writes frequently on corporation law and related topics. He previously served as a member of the Young Conaway's Management Committee and the Chair of its Corporate Litigation and Counseling practice.

Practices

- Busted Deal Litigation
- Challenged Transactions Involving Controlling Owners
- Expert Witness on Areas of Delaware Law
- Master Limited Partnership Litigation
- Mergers and Acquisitions
- Portfolio Company Representation
- Recapitalization and Distressed Transactions

Education

- University of Virginia School of Law (J.D.)
- Columbia University (A.B.)

Bar Admissions

- Delaware
- New York

Distinctions

- Best Lawyers in America®, Corporate Law, 2013-Present
- Chambers USA - America's Leading Lawyers for Business, Chancery, 2014 - Present
- Martindale Hubbell, AV Rated, 2016
- Delaware Super Lawyers®, Business and Corporate, 2014-Present
- Benchmark Litigation
- Fellow of the American College of Corporate Governance Counsel

Memberships and Affiliations

- American Bar Association, Section of Business Law, Section of International Law, and Section of Litigation, Member
- Delaware State Bar Association, Section of Corporation Law, Member
- Friends of the American Philosophical Society, Chair

Gary A. Bornstein
Cravath, Swaine & Moore LLP

Gary A. Bornstein is a partner at Cravath and serves as Co-Head of the Litigation Department. He handles a wide range of high-stakes commercial disputes, with particular focus on antitrust, M&A and securities litigation.

In the past several years, Mr. Bornstein has handled some of the country's most challenging and transformative M&A litigation, often involving novel and complex issues of law. He has represented buyers, sellers and lenders in contested M&A transactions, as well as corporations and directors in disputes with activist investors and other stockholders. Mr. Bornstein also regularly represents clients in complex antitrust litigation, with extensive experience in bet-the-company enforcement actions, and investigations.

Named a "Litigation Trailblazer" in 2021 by The National Law Journal, Mr. Bornstein's work is regularly recognized by numerous professional publications. The Legal 500 US has repeatedly named Mr. Bornstein a "Leading Lawyer" for M&A litigation and also has recommended him for his antitrust and appellate work. In addition, Benchmark Litigation has recognized Mr. Bornstein every year since 2009, including being named a "Top 100 Trial Lawyer in America," and he has been selected as one of Lawdragon's "500 Leading Lawyers in America" and its "500 Leading Litigators in America." He and his colleagues have repeatedly earned Cravath distinction as a Law360 "Competition Practice Group of the Year" and as "Law Firm of the Year" in M&A litigation in the U.S. News–Best Lawyers "Best Law Firms" survey.

Mr. Bornstein received a B.A. in architecture from Yale University in 1994 and a J.D. from Harvard in 1997, where he was a Notes Editor of the Law Review and a winner of the Ames Moot Court Competition. After graduation, Mr. Bornstein served as a law clerk to Hon. Amalya L. Kearsse of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. He joined Cravath in 1998 and was elected a partner in 2004.

Blake Rohrbacher
Director — Richards, Layton & Finger, P.A.
Rohrbacher@rlf.com

Blake Rohrbacher is a Director at Richards, Layton & Finger, P.A., in Wilmington, Delaware. He focuses his practice on litigation as well as advisory and transactional matters relating to Delaware corporations and alternative entities. He litigates corporate control, governance, M&A, fiduciary, statutory, and contractual disputes in the Delaware Court of Chancery and the Delaware Supreme Court, and he advises corporate boards and board committees regarding governance, fiduciary duties, and mergers and acquisitions.

The author of numerous legal publications, Blake also has particular expertise in Delaware law regarding nonprofit and nonstock corporations, having served on the drafting subcommittee responsible for the 2010 nonstock amendments to Delaware's General Corporation Law. Blake also assisted in drafting the Delaware Rapid Arbitration Act. Blake was appointed by then-Chancellor Strine to the Court of Chancery Rules Committee.

Blake received his B.A. degree from Yale University and his J.D. degree from Yale Law School. Following law school, he was a clerk for the Honorable Thomas L. Ambro, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit.