Begun in 1982, the Legislative Fellows Program provides a unique experience for students at the University of Delaware with the research and legislative experience of the Delaware General Assembly.

For students, who are selected to participate in the program, the experience offers a valuable opportunity to gain exposure to the governmental decision-making process.

Through their nonpartisan, in-depth legislative experience, Fellows have worked on critical issues such as education reform, healthcare, government transparency, and women's rights.

Any full-time graduate student or senior-level undergraduate student is eligible to apply.

Program Highlights

Opportunities

Recruitment is underway for the 2024 Legislative Fellows Program and junior and senior Honors students are encouraged to apply. The Legislative Fellows Program is a research scholarship opportunity offered in partnership by the University and Delaware General Assembly. Through their nonpartisan, in-depth research, Legislative Fellows assist legislators in dealing with complex public policy issues facing the state and earn research stipends of $11,000. Application deadline is Wednesday, November 1. Email resume to Lisa Moreland Allred regarding your interest as soon as possible, and find out more and apply here.

The Critical Language Scholarship is now OPEN for summer 2024 programs! Deadline: November 14, 2023 (8:00 PM est).
