Where: Marriott Courtyard Newark - University of Delaware

Details: Susan Gooden, of Virginia Commonwealth University is giving this year's Messick Lecture entitled, "A Nervous Area of Government." Like the air we breathe, nervousness about race surrounds us. Social equity, specifically racial equity, is a nervous area of government. Over the course of history, this nervousness has resulted in an inability to seriously advance the reduction of racial inequities in government. Until this nervousness is effectively managed, efforts designed to reduce racial inequities in the public sector cannot realize their full potential. Fortunately, some public sector efforts, such as the Seattle Race and Social Justice Initiative, offer significant promise in navigating this complex terrain.
