Run for the Buds

Down Syndrome Association of Delaware
This 5K/Half-Marathon/Kids Run is looking for volunteers! You can sign up through this link: Run for the Buds Volunteering. Volunteers are needed to assist at water station, registration, set-up/clean-up and various other tasks.

Delaware College Application Month (CAM)

The Institute for Public Administration at the University of Delaware needs your help! This initiative seeks to provide all seniors in the state an opportunity to apply to college during school hours. All district and charter schools in the state are participating this year, and volunteers can now sign-up! To see the schools, their College Application Week events, and the need for volunteers, check out the VolunteerSpot page here: <http://vols.pt/w1QEMQ>.

Student Opportunity: Get Your Opinion Heard on UD Review!

The Review is the independent student newspaper of the University of Delaware. The paper publishes an issue each Tuesday during the academic year. In addition, it provides daily updates and multimedia content through udreview.com.

Writing occasionally or on a regular basis for The Review would be of particular interest to students studying and working towards a career in public policy. All content is published on the website, making it easy to establish an online presence and share clips with potential employers.

Letters and opinion pieces can be submitted via <http://udreview.com/letters-to-the-editor/>, or to Elizabeth Catt at ecatt@udel.edu.
