This is your weekly summary of news from the SAPA Board:

SAPA hopes everyone has a great first day of classes!

SPPA Documentary "Life After Katrina," February 26, at 3:30-5 PM in Graham 187

The SPPA Diversity Committee has determined to launch its first "Movie Event." The Diversity Committee and SAPA are promoting the viewing and discussion of "Still Waiting: Life After Katrina," a documentary focused on the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina in New Orleans and the region from the perspective of public policy relevant to disaster relief, community development, public administration and organizational and community leadership. This event is open to all SPPA students and faculty. The discussant leaders will be Dr. Jim Kendra and PhD student James Goetschius.

REMINDER

Those of us graduating in May need to have the Application for Advanced Degree form completed and submitted to Linda Boyd no later than February 20. Please refer to Linda's 1/29 email for more details and instructions.
