This is your weekly summary of news from the SAPA Board:

COMMUNITY SERVICE OPPORTUNITY: Participate in Wilmington Community Day!

SAPA will be joining Public Allies Delaware on a Wilmington Community Day project in the West Center City area. Led by Wilmington 1st District City Councilman Nnamdi Chukwuocha (PADE '97), it will mark the launch of PADE's "impact community" partnership with West Center City. Working in partnership with community members and groups, the morning will focus on immediate and ongoing neighborhood beautification projects such as tree planting, fence installation, mural design, youth programming, door/window painting, trash cleanup, weeding and blight surveying. Volunteers will gather at Helen Chambers Playground/Hicks Anderson Center (6th & Madison Streets, Wilmington) at 8:30am-12pm on Saturday, April 26th. A free barbeque will be given to all volunteers following their service projects in the courtyard of the City/Council Building (800 N French Street, Wilmington DE 19801). If you have any questions, please contact Ally Becker (abbecker@udel.edu).

First Friday, May 2nd, in Philadelphia

SAPA will be taking a trip on the first Friday in May to explore First Fridays, a monthly free event du. We will leave Newark around 5. The return time is up for discussion- we could stay for some nightlife in Philadelphia or come back around 9.

Contact Ben Wallace with your questions, suggestions and RSVP. If you have a car and can drive, let him know. For more information see <http://www.visitphilly.com/events/philadelphia/first-friday/> and check out the Facebook event here:
