Who is eligible?

- People age 18-64 years old who do and do not stutter
- Formal diagnosis not required
- No history of cognitive or neurological impairments
- Not taking medication affecting brain function
- Other limited criteria apply – please inquire

Participants will take part in:

- Behavioral assessments
- Speech motor skills evaluation
- Brain Scan (MRI)

Compensation:

- $20 for behavioral assessments, $100 for each MRI session may be available to compensate your time and travel expenses.

For more information, please contact Samuel Farrand at stutteringproject@udel.edu 302.635.0812
Do you or someone you know stutter?

Help Us Learn More About Brain & Stuttering Through Research!

Please sign up on our website: www.delawarestutteringproject.com

Who is eligible?

- People age 18-64 years old who do and do not stutter
- Formal diagnosis not required
- No history of cognitive or neurological impairments
- Not taking medication affecting brain function
- Other limited criteria apply – please inquire

Participants will take part in:

- Behavioral assessments
- Speech motor skills evaluation
- Brain Scan (MRI)

Compensation:

- $20 for behavioral assessments, $100 for each MRI session may be available to compensate your time and travel expenses.

For more information, please contact Samuel Farrand at stutteringproject@udel.edu 302.635.0812