

Participate in Research with the University of Delaware!

The College of Agriculture and Natural Resources is recruiting married couples for a paid research study about how American households make decisions:

- The study will occur over an online Zoom session with our researcher.
- You and your spouse will be asked to complete basic computer tasks and make decisions together about completing the tasks.
- Sessions take approximately 60 minutes.
- You and your spouse will each be given a participation payment of $10, with the opportunity to each earn up to an additional $70 based on your task performance and decisions during the study. Payment will be given in the form of physical Visa gift cards.

If you are experiencing technical difficulties with the QR code or have questions regarding the study, please email jlparker@udel.edu for assistance.
