What do Language Adventure USA students do every day?

All students take 2 types of courses: a “listening/speaking” and a “reading/writing” course.

These courses meet from 8:15 a.m. until approximately 12:45 p.m. each day, Monday through Friday.

The topics of these courses are related to aspects of U.S. culture and/or business, as seen in the list of classes shown below:*

- Business writing and presentations
- Storytelling and writing
- Theater, games and skits (drama)
- Music
- News
- Literature
- Film production

*Students must take an English placement exam when they arrive. Students who test into Levels 1 to 3 (i.e., beginner to low-intermediate levels) may only take General English courses. Students who test into Levels 4 to 6 may take courses in U.S. culture or business English.

Students also participate in a fun-filled schedule of activities and excursions.

We take advantage of Delaware’s convenient location to take trips to places like:

- New York City
- Washington, D.C.
- Philadelphia
- Delaware beaches

There are also many other local activities that students do while in Delaware, such as:

- Hikes
