

Attendees: Kylee, Owen, Fiona, Moira, Alexis, Michaela, Brogan

Pledges:

- Pledge Of Allegiance: Owen
- 4-H Pledge: Moira

Old Business:

The exchange program is a two-year program where one year you stay with a 4-H'er from another state for a week, and the other year they stay with you for a week. The meetings for it are at 6 p.m., right before the Junior Council meeting.

The Achievement Celebration is 10/5 at Kranz Farm. Junior Council members must wear a 4-H shirt and either khakis or a skirt. Junior Council members will all have a speaking part and must arrive early. Make sure to sign up. It is five dollars.

The Quarter Auction is on 11/7. The Junior Council will be making a Wicked themed basket. Some ideas are a pink and green popcorn bucket, a blanket, a sweatshirt, and movie tickets.

Winter Fun Day is on 12/13. We will plan it at our next meeting.

The Junior is at Cape Henlopen on 1/16-18

New Business:

Program ideas: cooking/baking, vision board, Friendsgiving, separate community service, cupcake decorating, and crafts.

The Wicked Pines Run 5k is on Saturday 10/25 at Blackbird State Forest from 2:00-5:00 p.m.

Support code purple shelters. Bring in toiletries, mini towels/washcloths, wound care supplies, cold and flu care items, and hand warmers, and bring them to your County 4-H Office by October 25.

The State 4-H Fall Fest is on October 4 from 2-4 p.m. at the New Castle Building at the Delaware State Fair. This will include a cornhole tournament, games, crafts, food & drinks, a movie, and more! It has a five-dollar entrance fee. Register on 4HOnline.

Everyone is encouraged to post on their Instagram for National 4-H week 10/5-11
