University and Professional Service

At the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, in addition to extensive administrative work over my entire career, including serving as Assistant Director of the Center for Twentieth Century Studies (1996-2000), Director of the Edison Initiative in the College of Letters and Science (2000-2008), Director of the Office of Undergraduate Research (2008-2022), Chair of the History Department (2021-2022), Chair of the University Committee (2021-2022), and now Acting Dean of the College of Letters & Science, I have served on a wide variety of committees relating to student retention, graduation, and success, addressing such issues as general education reform, first-year experiences and seminars, admissions, living/learning communities, high-achieving students, bridge programs, etc. In recent years I have served on the Research R1 Working Group, the Research Excellence Team, the Top Tier Research University Thematic Team, the High Impact Practice Committee, the Summer Bridge Committee, the Retention Steering Committee, and numerous search and screen committees, including for positions in campus leadership. I chaired the “Year of the Humanities” and the L&S Academic Planning and Governance Committee (APGC).

Beyond UWM, I am a member of the editorial and advisory boards of a variety of journals and organizations, served for three years as a member of the Press Committee of the University of Wisconsin Press, and co-organized, with Richard Grusin, the 2012 Annual Conference of the Society for Literature, Science, and the Arts (SLSA) and, with Andrew Isenberg, the 2000 conference “Representing Animals” at the then Center for Twentieth Century Studies. I am a former elected member of the board of Interdisciplinary Nineteenth Century Studies (INCS) and also a former member of the Wisconsin Humanities Council’s Speakers Bureau. I am the general editor of the book series, Animalibus: Of Animals and Cultures with Penn State University Press, with twenty-two volumes in print. I have refereed articles, books, and proposals for, among others, Cornell University Press, the University of Wisconsin Press, Columbia University Press, the University of Chicago Press, Penn State University Press, the University of Virginia Press, Indiana University Press, the University of Illinois Press, the University of Minnesota Press, Rowman & Littlefield, the American Historical Review, Eighteenth-Century Studies, the Business History Review, Gender and History, Centaurus: Journal of the European Society for the History of Science, Notes and Records: the Royal Society Journal of the History of Science, the PMLA, the Public Historian, the Journal of Agricultural and Environmental Ethics, the Journal of Environmental Media, the National Science Foundation, the National Endowment for the Humanities, and the National Research Councils of Canada, the Netherlands, and Switzerland.
