

Dissemination and Implementation Rapid Add-On (RADD) Grants

Center for Dissemination and Implementation (CDI) | Washington University Institute for Public Health (IPH)

Rapid Add-on (RADD) Submission Instructions

The RADD Application has 3 components:

- 1) RADD Form
- 2) RADD Worksheet
- 3) RADD Detailed Budget.

When saving PDFs of your final version, add yourlastname.yourfirstname in front of the document name. Thus “CDI RADD Form” for John Doe would become “Doe.John.CDI RADD Form” and so forth.

1. Complete the RADD Form and save the document as a PDF.
2. Complete the RADD Worksheet and save as a PDF.
3. Completed the RADD Detailed Budget and save as a PDF.
4. Send the 3 pdfs that you saved above as separate attachments in one e-mail to DANDI@wustl.edu.
5. Rapid Add-On Applications are accepted on a rolling basis.
6. The Program Review Committee will determine the eligibility of the PI, whether the anticipated project is relevant to dissemination and implementation research and is within the scope of the RFA. Applications meeting these criteria will proceed to scientific review.

Award decisions are announced on a rolling basis. We aim to get back to you 10 business days after your submission.
