

CALL FOR ENTRY ACROSS DISCIPLINES

The Des Lee Gallery is pleased to announce the exhibition PARABOLA: SALON. A Salon style show to represent crowds in a time of distance. Parabola stands as our graduate student platform to extend our professional interests and connect with each other's field of understanding, production and knowledge. PARABOLA: SALON is a show of our work: our research, our writing, our data, our passion. This exhibition aims to contextualize all fields of graduate study at Washington University in St. Louis as inherently creative fields of study.
