Brown School Professional Development Summit
Policy and Equity: Collaborative Frameworks for Inclusive Change

Friday, October 18, and Saturday, October 19, 2024, at Washington University in St. Louis

The Policy and Equity Summit aims to foster collaborative frameworks for inclusive change by bringing together distinguished faculty, policy professionals, and community advocates to develop innovative, data-driven policy solutions that prioritize equity and social justice. Help champion equity and inclusive change—and connect with policy leaders—by becoming a sponsor.

The Summit offers sponsorship opportunities at the following contribution levels:

High Impact – $10,000
- 8 complimentary registrations
- Acknowledgment during the opening and closing sessions
- Recognition on the summit website and promotional materials
- Dedicated sponsor information table space
- Prominent logo placement on event signage
- Opportunity to include promotional materials in attendee packets
- Acknowledgment during the plenary and keynote addresses
- Opportunity to greet attendees

Equity Advocate – $5,000
- 4 complimentary registrations
- Acknowledgment during the opening and closing sessions
- Recognition on the summit website and promotional materials
- Dedicated sponsor information table space
