

Directions: Schnuck Pavilion

Schnuck Pavilion (in the red circle) is one of the two all-glass buildings in the newly-constructed east end of the Danforth Campus. It is the northern glass building, closest to Forest Park Parkway.

Driving Directions

Via Forest Park Parkway, turn south onto Hoyt Drive. Via Forsyth, turn north onto Wrighton Way.

Parking is available in the new East End underground parking garage (access via Forest Park Parkway/ or Forsyth)

Visitor Parking

Designated visitor spaces are available on the first level, P1, of the East End Garage.

Guests should take pulled tickets with them / no need to display on vehicle's dashboard.

Upon returning to the garage, pay at the pay station located near the pedestrian entrances before returning to their vehicle. The pay station accepts cash or credit card payments.

At the exit, visitors will need to insert the paid parking ticket in the exit station to activate the gate arms to open.

Visitor Rates (7 a.m. to 5 p.m., M-F)

0-2 hours: $2.00

2-4 hours: $4.00

4-6 hours: $6.00

6-10 hours: $9.00

Lost ticket fee: $25.00

Accepted forms of payment: cash, debit and major credit cards. Parking is free after 5pm during the week and over the weekends. In addition to visitor parking, the East End Garage is Zone 1 for faculty and staff.

Public Transportation

MetroLink: Skinker Station

From the corner of Forest Park Parkway and Skinker, walk under the arch at Green Hall, head west until the large glass building is visible.

Ample bike parking is available.

The Office of Sustainability, Environmental Studies Program, and Conference room/Classroom 201 are on the second floor.