

PECaD Celebrates 10 Years

To celebrate 10 years of accomplishment and collaboration in the community, PECaD hosted an evening of achievement on Sept. 15, 2015, presenting updates, overviews and recognition to those who have been involved with the organization

throughout the years. READ MORE

PCCP attends 100 Black Men Prostate Cancer Walk and Community Health Day

The Prostate Cancer Community Partnership (PCCP) partnered with Siteman Cancer Center to provide free PSA testing and prostate cancer education at the annual 100 Black Men

Prostate Cancer Walk and Community Health Day.

READ MORE

Cancer Prevention Marketing Campaign Updates

PECaD In The Community

Past community events:

- 9/12 Amherst Park Peace Festival
- 9/12 13th Annual Prostate Cancer Walk/Run
- 9/15 PECaD Celebration
- 9/19 Shalom Health Fest 2015
- 9/26 3rd Annual W. Jane gee Colon Fundraiser Event
- 10/17 The Healthy Side of Me: Girls PINK Ribbon Youth Health Fair
- 10/24 Church of Christ the Divine Health Fair
- 10/25 Eastern Missouri Laborers' District Council Health Fair

In the News

Rev. Dr. Paulette Sankofa, Ed.D. was selected for a "Seniors Making A Difference" award, presented 10/1/2015 at the VILLAGE Symposium: Empowering Ourselves to Impact Our Diverse Comm. She was a member of the Community Research Fellows Training program under Dr. Melody Goodman.

Did You Know?

November is National Lung Cancer Awareness Month.

November is National Pancreatic Cancer Awareness Month.

Learn ways to help prevent your risk of cancer.

Helpful Links

Our longstanding tradition of placing cancer prevention education ads in The St. Louis American newspaper continued in 2015. PECaD has also expanded our marketing efforts into the Metro East Illinois area in hopes of spreading the 8 Ways to Prevent Cancer to the residents of East St. Louis and the Belleville, IL area. READ MORE

- Learn more about PECaD
- Learn more about health disparities
- Cancer prevention tips
- Calendar of events

.....

2014-2015 Annual Stakeholders Report

PECaD released the 2014-2015 Annual Report to Stakeholders in August. This report provides a summary of the progress PECaD has made towards the elimination of cancer disparities in our region and local communities. Download your copy here. For a brief overview of PECaD's community engagement, view our infographic.

