Student Engagement & Belonging

We will ensure all students feel a sense of belonging and have easy access to the resources they need to learn, grow, and flourish.

Key Objectives

- Launch a new Student Life Series, including a University 101 course for all first-year students and a robust second-year experience of curricular and extracurricular elements.
- Foster vibrant campus living communities where students love to live.
- Create an Undergraduate Student Employment Office, connecting students to on-campus jobs that help build relevant career skills.
- Increase equitable access to residential, social, and gathering spaces for all students.

Healthy Excellence

We aspire to distinguish WashU as a place where students graduate even healthier than when they arrive.

Healthy students are successful students.

Healthy habits lead to lives of happiness and success.

Being a healthy adult requires a foundation of learned healthy habits.

Key Objectives

- Build a new, best-in-class Health and Well-Being Center.
- Create effective promotion programs and partnerships that teach healthy habits and cultivate a culture of well-being on the Danforth Campus.
- Enhance the vital resources of Counseling & Psychological Services.
- Invest in successful programs like WashU Cares and Disability Resources, including adaptive technologies and customized supports.

Equity, Diversity, & Inclusion

We will increase access and inclusion for all students, foster honest conversation, encourage the fair exchange of ideas, and build understanding of diverse lived experiences at WashU.

Key Objectives

- Bolster our dialogue across differences curriculum to engage diverse worldviews and increase literacy in areas such as: politics, religion, ethics, class, race, gender, and sexual orientation.
- Invest in services for our first-generation or limited-income (FGLI) students which provide mentorship and real-world experiences that prepare them to be global leaders in their chosen field, including a new four-year program.

Leadership

We will create a renewed focus on leadership as an essential quality for WashU graduates. Define a shared university vision and approach to leadership development that will shape the leaders of tomorrow.

Key Objectives

- Develop WashU's unique brand of leadership development, partnering both academic and co-curricular elements.
- Provide students with opportunities to cultivate their capabilities to lead and influence others for good while developing their unique leadership identities, in a variety of formal and informal settings.

Career Development

We will chart a course for career discovery and create pathways to meaningful and competitive employment opportunities throughout our students' lives.

Key Objectives

- Create ONE career center and a four-year career curriculum requirement for all undergraduate students.
- Provide all students with opportunities for at least two fully-funded pre-professional experiences, e.g. internships, research, or co-ops.
- Develop partnerships with employers to position WashU as a leading institution in attracting talent to their organizations.
- Expand services to all alumni through the life of their career.
