30th Annual Washington University in St. Louis Pow Wow Sponsorship Guide

Saturday and Sunday March 27-28, 2021

Over 3,000 Attendees Expected Virtually!

The Kathryn M. Buder Center for American Indian Studies was established 30 years ago and has graduated 212 Buder scholars in Social Work and Public Health. Today, the Buder Center serves approximately 25 scholars per year. All Buder Center scholars coordinate and host the annual Washington University in St. Louis Pow Wow. This is an area wide event that helps increase cultural awareness and contributes to the richness of St. Louis and the larger region. The Washington University in St. Louis Pow Wow is in its 30th year and attracts over 3,000 dancers, singers, vendors, participants and guests locally & nationally. Due to COVID-19, the Pow Wow will be hosted virtually.
